NO DEBIA PERMITIRSE A LOS NIÑOS JUGAR DINERO EN LAS CALLES. LA POLICIA Y LA ESCUELA DEBIERAN EVITAR ESE ESPECTACULO, NOS DICE UN VECINO DE ESTA CIUDAD

Un importante vecino de esta ciudad, que es padre de familia, nos ha rogado que hagamos pública su protesta por el espectáculo, poco edificante de multitud de niños, que están todavía en edad escolar, jugando en las calles dinero, a vista y pa-ciencia de las autoridades de policía.

Nos dice también que sería de desearse que tanto las escuelas como las autoridades de policía intervinieran evitando este espectáculo. En la Escuela —nos dice— debería iniciarse una campaña sobre este particular, tratando de corregir el vicio de juego en todas las formas posibles. La policía por su parte debía también cooperar impidiendo por la fuerza que niños pequeños estén jugando dinero en las calles.

Si la ley es estricta con los grandes, como un principio de moralidad pública, más estricta debía ser con los niños.

Nos parece muy atinadas las observaciones anteriores y las hacemos llegar ante las autoridades escolares como a las de policía, apoyando la campaña de esta clase, que ojalá se hiciera con todo rigor como sea necesario.

DE SIXAOLA SIGUEN QUEJANDOSE DE LOS PERJUICIOS QUE CAUSA EL NUEVO ITINERARIO DE TRENES EN ESA REGION

Sixaola julio 20 1943

Sr. don Enrique Arrázola Limón.

La organización de los trabajos hecha por los machos y jamaicanos en los últimos tiempos aquí en Sixaola no puede ser mejor, al hombre que sabe, lo quitan y lo reemplazan por otro que cree que sabe, pero no sabe y claro estas líneas de cacao, por más cacao que produzcan no pueden pagarle a la compañía todo el dinero que estos inexpertos están gastando en limpiezas y podas de cacaotales.

El aprendizaje de estos superintendentes está siendo dispendioso y claro que los accionistas se preguntarán, por qué bajan tanto las acciones de la United Fruit; y es que estos por acá, nombran en puestos de importancia a individuos que no saben más que pasear en motocar y beber whiskey.

El macho Myrick aún nos tiene con los trenes saliendo de Almirante e insiste en perjudicarnos a todos los que vivimos metidos aquí en la montaña, cuando queremos salir, no podemos regresar a la casa el mismo día; el jefe de trenes en Guabito dice que en los trenes de pasajeros nadie paga, no pagarán ellos ni los empleados del gobierno, pero nosotros si pagamos nuestro ticket; y hay que ver que la compañía no regala nada cuando le da un pasaje a-nual a algún enleado, es porque le puede servir a ella. De manera pues, que si ningún vecino de estos lugares a protestado, es por temor a represalias de parte de los empleados de la Compañía.

Sería bueno que el gobernador de Limón se diera una vuelta por Sixaola y Talamanca y que vea la situación como está para que hagan al macho Myrick cambiar el itinerario de nuevo al sistema viejo. Yo pienso ir a San José muy pronto y hablar allá con el General Pinaud y con don Otilio U-late para ver de que se haga algo al respecto y también para ver de que quiten jamaicanos de las fincas y pongan fomanes del país, solo Acuña y Venegas, el resto, jamaicanos; en una finca como la Costa Rica quitaron a don Chalo Quirós para poner en su lugar al jamaicano Spyer, y dicen que van a quitar a Acuña y Venegas para hacer lo mismo poner en esas fincas a jamaicanos, mal vamos así señor director.

De usted servidor con todo respeto.

La madre del sargento Meyer Levin, quien acompañó al capitán Colin Kelley en el épico vuelo en que perdió la vida después de haber hundido un acorazado japonés en aguas filipinas, muestra con orgullo las condecoraciones a que se ha hecho acreedor su heroico hijo en la guerra del Pacífico. La última le fue concedida recientemente por el general MacArthur por haber bombardeado y hundido un transporte japonés en el mar de Coral. Al fondo se ve la fotografía del valeroso aviador.

¿COMO LA MUNICIPALIDAD DE LIMON PUEDE CONTRIBUIR A LA ESTABILIDAD DE LOS MAESTROS QUE INTEGRAN EL PERSONAL DOCENTE DE ESTA PROVINCIA

No es justo que Limón tenga cada año el problema de los maestros que faltan para la educación de sus niños, estando en manos de su Gobierno Local tan sería difícil.

De más está decir que existen subvenciones para otras autoridades que bien las merecen al contemplar la importancia de sus funciones. ¿Por qué no subvencionar de la misma manera a los maestros, ya que nuestra labor también es grande y sagrada? En Limón, el costo de vida ha aumentado un ciento por ciento más en la Meseña Central; entonces el maestro tiene que ir a buscar el lugar en donde su sueldo le alcance para comer. Todo aumenta, menos el sueldo de los maestros.

Dejo al mejor criterio de nuestros dignos representantes municipales la efectividad de la iniciativa que respetuosamente les exponemos; siendo esta una de las formas de colaborar a la mejor educación y cultura de sus propios hijos.

VARIOS FINQUEROS PIDEN A LA MUNICIPALIDAD, AMPARO PARA QUE NO LES DESPOJE DE TIERRAS QUE HAN SEMBRADO

Sr. Pdte de la Municipalidad Limón.

Salón de Sesiones.

Limón julio 14 1943

Nosotros, los abajo firmados a usted atentamente venimos a exponer lo siguiente:

Somos vecinos de Home Creek desde hace muchísimos años y todos tenemos allí familias y cultivos. Hace pocos meses el jamaicano Lambert Barnett Evans denunció una extensión de más de treinta hectáreas lo mismo que otro jamaicano llamado Wisky otra gran parcela de terreno que han sido abandonados de la Penhurst Banana Co y en donde mas de cuarenta trabajadores tienen desde hace mucho tiempo sus cultivos sin que nadie los hubiera molestado. Estos señores han echado a pastar sus animales en los cultivos antes dichos destruyendo los siembras como puede atestiguar el señor Agente Principal de Policía.

Los citados señores alegan que esos terrenos son de su propiedad y que no tienen por qué reconocer ningún dano a terceros.

Como la adjudicación de esos terrenos en que hay tantos colonos ganándose el sustento de sus familias va a resultar una injusticia para las gentes que allí trabajan, venimos a rogarle que interponga su valiosa ayuda lo mismo que la de sus compañeros de municipalidad a fin de evitar esta injusticia, usando los medios que la ley brinda en estos casos.

Mucho agradeceremos a usted y a la Corporación Municipal evitar este despojo a gentes pobres y trabajadoras que se ganan la vida honradamente cultivando tierras que siempre estuvieron abandonadas y que los actuales denunciantes ni siquiera trabajan.

Del señor Presidente Municipal muy atentos y seguros servidores.

Hay cien firmas de finqueros.

TUS OJOS SON NEGROS

Son tus ojos grandes de color de noche; son ellos dos flores hermosas y bellas que abrieron su cáliz como un negro broche bajo la radiante luz de las estrellas.

Son como las cuentas del viejo rosario que en su débil mano sobaba la abuela; como golondrinas que en el campanario fabrican su nido con frágil pajueta.

Por grandes, por negros, por lindos tus ojos, porque ellos reflejan tus horas tranquilas, porque ellos no encierran bravuras ni enojos, Porque la tristeza con ellos mutilas; y porque han calmado todos mis antojos es por lo que adoro tus negras pupilas.

L AVISITA DEL SEÑOR PRESIDENTE

El señor Presidente de la República ha ofrecido venir a Limón el veintidós de agosto. Su visita será una grata sorpresa para esta ciudad, no solamente porque su presencia entre nosotros nos permite rendirle el homenaje de nuestra admiración, sino también porque de cerca, tendremos la oportunidad de presentarle pequeños problemas, que siendo de fácil resolución, nunca se han estudiado para resolverlos, favorablemente.

Es claro que no vamos a decirle nada sobre el desarrollo de la agricultura en la zona atlántica, ni sobre la necesidad de apoyar la industria del cacao, ni del incremento, en gran escala de la ganadería. La agricultura la está desarrollando la United con el abacá, el futuro banano, la quina y algunas otras cosas que estime beneficiosas. Las cooperativas de cacao desde hace muchos años se enredaron como madeja de hilo en las uñas de un gato y va a costar desenredarla. La ganadería a juicio del asesor técnico de la Secretaría de Agricultura, está descalificada según sus observaciones personales.

Pero hay otras cosas pequeñas que están perjudicando el desarrollo de la provincia y que podría arreglarse con una orden del señor Presidente o con una gestión de su parte si ellas no dependen exclusivamente del Poder Ejecutivo.

Veamos una:

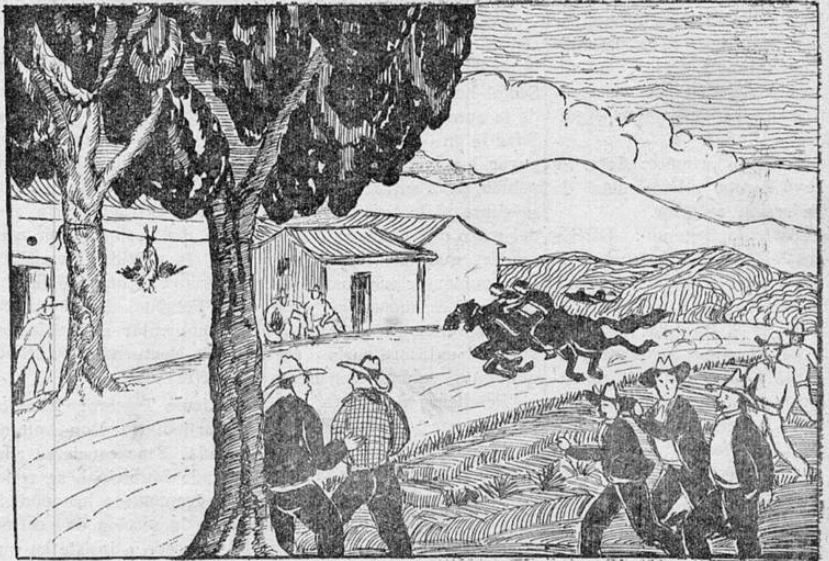

Cahuita, Puerto Viejo y toda la costa sur del Caribe, están prácticamente incomunicados con el resto del país. El tranvía entre Penshurst y Home Creek, única vía terrestre de toda esa región, se usa ocasionalmente cuando alguien que tiene carro y mula hace servicio de pasajeros. De todas maneras ese tranvía no puede conectar con Limón toda esa vasta zona, sino hay otros caminos que puedan conectarse. Un servicio de cabotaje organizado para que sea periódico resolvería esas dificultades. Limon Trading Co., Johan Ernest y la Junta de Custodia, tienen lanchas buenas y de capacidad suficiente en conjunto para transportar toda la carga que se produzca allí.

Todo es cuestión entonces de organizar un servicio periódico en combinación con esas casas comerciales. Así toda la enorme producción de frutas, legumbres, cereales, aves, cerdos, etc., que produce esa zona, vendría a Limón abaratando los precios y dando a todos los pequeños cultivadores de esos lugares remotos, el rendimiento de su esfuerzo y un mejoramiento de su producción.

Estamos seguros que cuando el señor Presidente se entere, con detalle, de la simplicidad del remedio y del beneficio incalculable que se haría a la provincia, arreglará las cosas con una pequeña gestión.

Los memoriales, los estudios y los proyectos que se hacen por escritor, se enredan invariablemente en el rodaje administrativo. Cuando alcanzan a la complicada organiza-

GRAVE HAPPENINGS IN THE REICH

Happenings of the most serious character appear to be taking place in Germany. A report, dated the 4th. instant, declared that the medicos in attendance on Hitler had diagnosed his condition as "very bad" and stated that he frequently suffered from attacks of depression. A subsequent advice stated that the military Chiefs are preparing to assume control of the government. It was further mentioned that Doctor Paul Goebbels, Minister of Propaganda, was believed to have lost the control and direction of the press.

ción de las juntas o de las comisiones, son apenas hilachas de la trama original.

Sería en extremo beneficioso para la provincia que cuantos tengan interés por esta zona nos envíen cualquier proyecto o sugestión que estimen importante. Tendrá cabida en nuestras páginas y llegará a las manos del señor Presidente sin intervención de otras manos y de otras dependencias ministeriales.

are helped back to healthy activity again. Poisons and impurities are filtered out of the bloodstream. Your backache and joint pains quickly vanish.

UN VISTAZO A LA "CITY"

EVOCACIONES Y COMENTARIOS
Por el periodista chileno GONZALO MERA.

Comúnmente se entiende el consabido refrán de "Héro en el extranjero que la "city" des mandó a Pilotos..." Heer comprende el total perímetro urbano de la metrópoli londinense. Apreciación equivocada, desde luego, pues la "city" viene a ser propiamente una ciudad dentro de otra.

Incrustada en el corazón de la capital de los Reyes, éstos respetan su autonomía, reconocida por decreto de la Corona. Y tanto es así que para la ceremonia de la Coronación del actual Monarca, Jorge VI, S. M. hubo de solicitar el correspondiente permiso de entrada al Lord Mayor de la "City" a fin de poder llegar hasta la catedral de San Pablo, situada dentro de los límites de su jurisdicción.

Otra característica de esta ciudad, simbólicamente cerrada, es que junto con monopolizar las principales actividades de la vida ciudadana la sabido agruparlas en forma tradicional y pintoresca. La banca, los tribunales de justicia, el periodismo y el comercio, tienen allí sus núcleos más importantes. Y es así como podemos considerar entonces el barrio de los banos, de los abogados, de la prensa—con los principales diarios y agencias noticiosas establecidos en el Reino Unido—de los vendedores, de los carnes, de carne, de pescado, etc.

No hay nada de extraño, en consecuencia, que —como en des mandó a Pilotos..." Heer Hitler ordenara al Mariscal Goering éste, a su vez, a los jóvenes bárbaros de la Luftwaffe, de reducir a polvo esa viscera motriz de una población orgánica de siete millones de habitantes y que denominase la "city"...

Empezada la batalla aérea de Gran Bretaña, ella fue el blanco predilecto de cada día y cada noche.

Había que destruir el oro y los tesoros encerrados en las arcas del banco de Inglaterra y demás instituciones análogas. Silenciar el tercer poder del estado que aun conserva en Europa su libertad de expresión. Desbaratar el centro primordial del comercio Abatir, Desmora ir.

Y la propaganda nazi-fascista informó jactanciosamente al mundo de sus proezas incendiarias.

"El tráfico de la city parece estar completamente interrumpido; y por el número de los incendios en las plantas de gas y agua los servicios públicos deben haber cesado de funcionar". (Roma, broadcast, 7. x. 40).

"La leyenda del auto-control y flemas británicos está siendo destruida.

Todas las noticias de Londres coinciden en determinar que la población está poseída del miedo. Los 7,000,000 de londinenses han perdido completamente su auto-control. Corren desorientados, por las calles, y son víctimas de las bombas de explosión de los "shells". (Paris, broadcast alemán, 17. x. 40).

"Una cosa es cierta, que especialmente el poder de resistencia londinense tanto en lo que concierne a los recursos materiales como humanos, han sido elevados a la perfección. No obstante, la inmensidad de Londres, no obstante sus enormes recursos, el día llegará—y debe venir—que no podrá mantenerse mucho tiempo" (Roma, broadcast, 12. IX. 40).

Pero a pesar de todos los vaticinios del Eje Roma-Berlín-Tokio, de todos los bombardeos incessantes, la "city" resistió. La "city" quedó en pie. Y nosotros podemos ver en la actualidad los edificios indemnes del barrio de los banos, de la prensa de los abogados, de los distritos comerciales, que eran los objetivos perseguidos por la aviación hitlerista, y precisamente, los únicos que no fueron dañados.

Restaurantes y casas particulares sufrieron en cambio con intensidad. En el resto de la capital, iglesias, hospitales, escuelas y salas de entretenimiento público.

Caminando por Moorgate Street se diría sin embargo, que a la "city" no le ha pasado nada. Pero ya adentrándose en determinados sectores se puede constatar la brutalidad de la guerra concebida e iniciada por los países totalitarios.

—Aquí estaba el famoso restaurante Pimie — nos dice Miss Fox, funcionario del Consulado Argentino, que nos acompaña en nuestro vistazo reporteroil. Era muy frecuentado por sus deliciosos "churrascos"...

"Aquí estaba..." — es una expresión devenido angustiosa por su requerimiento de apremiante y melancólica nostalgia. Sabe a tiempo de paz y a algo que se evade con resentimiento. Talves es un pasado muerto, frente a un montón de escombros, salta la anécdota evocadora. Era costumbre en dicho local de presentarle a los parroquianos un apetecible queso, después de almuerzo, y obsequiárselo a aquel que adivinara su peso exacto.

Siempre a propósito de restaurantes desaparecidos, con flemas muy británicas. por cierto Miss Fox observó: "Los que teníamos nuestros quehaceres aquí, por años, estábamos habituados a la cocina de algún establecimiento. De la noche a la mañana hubimos de cambiar de "menú". Lamentable, ¿verdad?"

Visitando también la histórica catedral de San Pablo, contemplamos ciertos cenotafios de generales y diplomáticos notables del Imperio las capillas en que celebran sus ceremonias varias órdenes caballerescas y el nuevo bastante ancho que indica toda vía el punto preciso donde cayó una bomba alemana, felizmente sin explotar, y que penetró por el coro, al lado izquierdo del altar mayor.

En Ludgate Hill pilotos germanos trataron de hacer desaparecer un tranvía aereo de la línea ferroviaria metropolitana. Conforme a una regla de la guerra ya del todo y de todos conocida, causaron perjuicios por doquier excepto allí.

Prosiguiendo con los "milagros" la posada de "Cheshire Cheese" reliquia antiquísima entre los establecimientos de su género, situada en el estrecho y típico pasaje de Wine Office Court, continúa sirviendo a sus habituales.

Como dato ilustrativo diremos acerca de ello que fue reconstruida el año 1667, bajo el reinado de Carlos II y ha seguido abierta al público, ininterrumpidamente, desde Santiago II hasta Jorge VI. Frecuentada una época por un grupo de célebres escritores se cuenta que ahí concurría a menudo un personaje descrito por Dickens en una de sus novelas. Mientras la city y muchos otros lugares del Reino Unido debieron vivir durante el curso de la "blitzkrieg" aérea de 1940, bajo una constante vigilia de fuego y de metralia, la ciudadanía británica se aferró a la tarea de forjar serénica y serenamente las alas de la revancha.

—Un día llegará nuestro turno— se decían. Y ese día vino antes de lo que ellos mismos se esperaban.

"Los bombardeos de terror británicos"— puede complementarse al present. Goebbels. Es que los alemanes tienen memoria corta: El 6 de abril de 1941 — entre otros actos de barbarie — bombardearon arbitraria y sistemáticamente Belgrado. Causaron 30,000 muertos sobre 200,000 habitantes.

"La R. A. F. ha bombardeado objetivos sin importancia militar "afirman los oficiales alemanes. Ya hemos señalado qué clase de "objetivos" bombardeó la Luftwaffe en Inglaterra cuando su soberbio poderío llenaba el espacio. Previamente en Varsovia, Atenas, Rotterdam y Oslo ametralló mujeres y niños.

Alemania es la nación que ha perdido por execrable el derecho de quejarse de la guerra aérea. Creyendo ciegamente que había fijado para sí el timón de la fortuna, echó a volar sobre el cielo desolado de Europa un enjambre de pájaros mecánicos que oscurecieron el Sol, reempazándolo por una gran hoguera, e hicieron la noche más densa con el negro concurso de la muerte.

Si esta vez la anonadante proyección se circunscribe sobre su propio suelo, devasándolo, quién podrá negar que la justicia siempre termina por hacerse presente?

HEREDIANO 5, JUPITER 1: EL SCORE DEL DOMINGO

Sabido es ya que los buenos equipos de San José o del interior nos tienen una medida de cinco goles: Independiente de Tres Ríos cinco a cero, Cartago cinco a dos y ahora Herediano 5 a 1. Con un juego de coordinación perfecta y un coraje propio de la juventud que integra este cuadro florentino, los visitantes del domingo se impusieron a los del Júpiter desde los primeros minutos del juego. Y más los creció la flojedad y frialdad de los nuestros quienes comenzaron jugando con un nerviosismo y un descontrol alarmadores. Nuestro extremo izquierdo fue un fracaso desde el principio y no fue sino hasta que fue cambiado, que el juego tomó interés y los del Júpiter presionaron parejo hasta llegar a tener embotellados a los heredianos, aunque no pudieron perforar más de una vez su meta.

En cuanto a la moralidad deportiva de los visitantes, no tenemos sino elogios. Ha sido este uno de los pocos equipos visitantes que ha dejado a la afición satisfecha y sentada cátedra de calidad y de caballerosidad en su juego. No hubo un sólo incidente que lamentar. No hubo una protesta contra el árbitro; y esto que algunos fallos fueron injustificados. Nos dejan estos muchachos la impresión de ciertos jugadores americanos que alineaban con un equipo de Limón hace algunas décadas: llegaban a la plaza uniformados, ocupaban sus puestos, jugaban como siempre poniendo alma y corazón en la brega, atendían a su capitán con perfecta disciplina, recibían cualquier sanción por injuria que ella fuera con una calma absoluta y al termi-nar el juego con esa misma disciplina se ponían los pantalones y salían del campo como habían entrado: con toda la corrección y la disciplina propios de un deportista caballeroso y altivo. Es este un claro ejemplo que nos han dado los deportistas heredianos. Que sirva a los nuestros de norma a seguir en el próximo campeonato. Que esa coordinación y esa ausencia de egoísmo en los integrantes heredianos sirva también de enseñanza a nuestros muchachos que creen que el individualismo es muestra de coraje y de energía. Trabajaron ellos menos pero anotaron más porque colocaron más pases. Nos agradó mucho ver como en el segundo tiempo los nuestros tuvieron jugadas de verdadero interés realizadas a base de conjunto. Este es el fin de traer equipos de primera división, que nos enseñen por qué juegan tanto y por qué su juego es efectivo. Y es que para ellos el mérito no es meter el gol sino llevar la bola de jugador en jugador para colocarla al mejor dispuesto y al mejor situado, para luego repartir el éxito de la anotación. Aquí está nuestro error: creer que el mérito es del que anotó el tanto y no de los que intervinieron en la jugada. Por eso creemos que estos cuadros que hoy nos anotan cinco goles ganándonos por un alto score, están contribuyendo grandemente al mejoramiento de nuestro fútbol, y más si tomamos en cuenta que se acerca el campeonato de este año, del cual tiene gran esperanza la afición de poder mejorar nuestro deporte favorito, que ha decir verdad está por muchos cientos de bajura comparado con el fútbol de Limón hace quince años.

Un lanzamiento de paracaidistas norteamericanos que están terminando el riguroso entrenamiento a que son sometidos antes de ser enviados al frente.

FUE UN VERDADERO EXITO EL HOMENAJE A LOS DEPORTISTAS HEREDIANOS

En varias formas fueron agasajados los deportistas heredianos. Después del juego fueron obsequiados ambos cuadros, en compañía de la Banda Militar, con una fiestecita preparada en los salones del Júpiter a la cual asistió además la dedicada, señorita Marina Reyes C. acompañada de su señora madre y de otras estimables señoras. Aunque el homenaje careció de discursos y de aparatosas manifestaciones, tuvo el aspecto de una fiesta casera de intimidad absoluta.

El homenaje que tuvo más significación fue el baile preparado en los salones del Hotel Park, que por su modestia y sencillez resultó un acto social de gran trascendencia donde no se registró el más pequeño incidente y donde hubo un verdadero derroche de cultura y de amistad. Asistieron personas de reconocida meritoriedad entre las cuales apuntamos al doctor Vin das y su señora esposa, a don Eduardo Castro Saborio su señora esposa y su encantadora hija Nena, a nuestro particular amigo Cañitas y otras personas más que contribuyeron a realizar y hacer más solemne este acto social. No queremos dejar esta oportunidad sin felicitar al señor Avilés, director del conjunto musical que amenizó este baile, por la buena música que nos brindó. Un conjunto acaba dicho de formar al cual se le pueden augurar muchos triunfos por que su estilo de música es la nuestra. Es la música que tocan las buenas orquestas. Solamente que le falta un poquito más de pulimento y un poco más de música alegre y tendremos un conjunto musical de los que hacen bastante falta en Limón. Estamos seguros de que nuestro propósito ha sido alcanzado: dejar satisfechos a los heredianos y a nuestro público.

EL BARCELONA PERDIO EN CARTAGO POR 4 A 2

El domingo salieron los muchachos del Barcelona con rumbo a Cartago. Habían sido invitados para realizar un juego contra la primera del Cartaginés el lunes 2 y aunque a última hora tuvieron dificultades con los pases, la situación fue arreglada y el Barcelona fue puntual a su cita. El juego se realizó a las tres y media y aunque faltaron algunos titulares del Barcelona, el score conseguido fue muy favorable ya que en dos a cuatro cuando se juega con un cuadro de primeras divisiones, es un verdadero triunfo. Según nos cuentan los que presenciaron el juego, el mejor de los once fue Salazar el portero quien se unió a la embajada deportiva limonense en Cartago y jugó con ellos. Jiménez jugó de zaguero donde estuvo bastante oportuno como en sus buenos tiempos en que jugaba de defensa del Júpiter.

THE SITUATION IN ITALY, MOST CRITICAL

Conditions appear rather confusing in Italy. It was generally thought that Mussolini's fall from power would have meant the conclusion of an early Peace Pact with the Allied Powers, but though negotiations toward this were commenced, nothing has yet happened, despite the clamour of the great majority of the populace Premier Badoglio is presumed to be playing for time, in view of the Nazi Dictator's threat to throw the entire strength of his aerial forces against him should he capitulate.

Conditions being as they are, the Allied Nations, have restarted their aerial assaults against the important strategic positions and military objectives. Naples was subjected to a terrific attack last Wednesday, when the city suffered heavily; the loss of life announced so far is 159 and 228 persons injured.

Patriotic groups in Turin and Milan are reported to have demanded the abdication of King Victor Manuel and the resignation of Premier Badoglio.

A Bern advice states that Italy's Minister of Foreign Relations has drafted a Peace proposal which provides among other conditions, that the Allied troops will not penetrate the Italian territory except for control purposes, and that the peninsula will be neutralized. The proposal is supposed to be receiving the attention of the Cabinet.

The Italian political parties opposed to Fascismo have addressed a joint note to President Roosevelt and Premier Churchill, in which they declare that all Italy have heard and read their message and are making efforts to collaborate with the Allies. The note also mentioned that the Nazis are more hated in Italy than in any other occupied country.

GOODYEAR Co. WILL FACILITATE PRIVATE RUBBER PLANTINGS

We learn that at a conference held recently in the Capital, between the Minister of Agriculture, members of the Congressional Commission on Agriculture and representatives of the Goodyear Rubber Corporation, it was announced that the Corporation would amply assist any private individual who desired to cultivate the plant under the vigilance of their technicians as well as those of the Inter-

American Institute of Agricultural Science.

It was also stated that the necessary seedlings would be supplied by the Corporation.

This is certainly of much interest to the advancement of the industry in this Zone and we would urge all who are in a position to undertake the cultivation of the valuable plant to place themselves in touch with the Corporation's Management.

1/2 MILLION DOLLARS APPROPRIATION FOR INTER-AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF AGRICULTURAL SCIENCE AT TURRIALBA

The very interesting information has been obtained that an appropriation of the large sum of two and a half million dollars has been made for work in connection with the Inter-American Institute of Agricultural Science located at Turrialba. The money will, it is understood be used for the construction of the various buildings; needed to accommodate the different activities of the institute as well as the laying out of playgrounds for the large number of employees.

As according to the report from the Washington Headquarters, the work will be started in the very near future, the employment of the necessary large number of workers should alleviate, to an appreciable extent, some of the existing economic stress.

HAVE FALLEN CATANIA AND OREL

With the capture of the important base of Catania, General Montgomery is stated to have effected the most outstanding of his triumphs since the launching of the North African warfare. Catania was occupied by troops of the Eighth British Army during the forenoon hours of last Thursday. As the enemy's entire defence system has been destroyed, they have been forced to precipitately flee toward Messina. It is expected that in a few more days Sicily will be under the full control of the Allied Command.

After a series of some of the bitterest and bloodiest fighting in the Russian conflict, the important Nazi base of Orel was taken by the Soviet forces on the 5th instant thereby culminating their principal 1943 objective. The remainder of the 250,000 men who composed the garrison are presumed to have either been taken prisoners or have fled toward Bryansk (To Page 11)

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

It is a natural sequence that the youths of today will be the adults of tomorrow; therefore, the preparation, the culture and the influence they obtain during the earlier stages of their lives will, unquestionably, form the basis of their matured characters.

Faced with this fact, it is of vital importance that parents, guardians and the State accord minute attention to the younger members of the nation's citizenry and, as far as may be possible, nip in the bud such tendencies as are likely to mar their individual futures and seriously prejudice the country's welfare.

Culture, the thing supreme, cannot be left to chance to be developed haphazardly, must receive its inspiration from and be succoured by the State and those of properly moulded characters. A well-balanced life is too momentous a thing, at this stage of the world's existence, to be left to the mercy of whims and casualties. It should be the constant effort of our entire authoritative system to shape the character of our youths along such lines as will produce worthy citizens in the later years. Everything should be pressed into service to save our boys and girls from perdition.

For this reason the ATLANTIC VOICE calls special attention to the wave of juvenile delinquency now rampant in this city. It is no uncommon thing for our boys to publicly indulge in the playing of games for monetary considerations. They persistently stake cash as the goal for the spinning of their tops; coins of different values are also employed by them in the game which calls for the throwing of the staked article against walls, street curbs and other objectives.

These and other gambling tendencies are displayed so daringly and publicly that we are inclined to the thought that no attention is being directed toward their elimination. It should, however, be borne in mind that the great purpose of life is two-fold—personal and relative; — that we are required to fulfil certain duties toward ourselves and faithfully perform others responsibilities to our fellow creatures.

MUNDA CAPTURED BY GENL. MCARTHUR

After violent fighting over a period of thirty-five days the forces commanded by General MacArthur have captured the important Japanese air base at Munda on the Island of New Georgia. The victorious troops are said to be cleaning up the remains of the five thousand soldiers who garrisoned the position. Fighting of an intense character is said to be progressing to the south of Salamanca in the sector of New Guinea. The Japs are reported to have started their evacuation of the island located in the near vicinity of Munda.

MISS INA MURRAY AN ATTRACTIVE SUMMER BRIDE

By the expressions heard on all sides, we gather that the large gathering who thronged the Cathedral on the evening of Saturday, a week ago, were charmed with Miss Ina Elena Murray, the summer Bride of Mr. Rolando Pugh. The entire scene was most attractive and more worthy the brush of an artist than the pen of a humble writer.

The shadows of evening had just graced the earth and dame Nature displayed a much appreciated generosity by checking the drops of rain, when the guests, in harmonious formation, appeared in the sacred edifice. They were followed, soon after, by the Bridegroom, Mr. Rolando C. Pugh, accompanied by his bestman, Mr. Thomas Allen of San José. Then came the Bride, reclining on the arm of her father, Mr. James Murray, who gave her away in marriage, while the organa on a tafeta background strains seasoned with the harmonious voices of the choristers. She was robed in a rich princess gown of floral organa on a tafeta background, with fashionable half-moon coronet adjusted with a circular fall; bridal slippers of knotted white fabric and costly silk gloves and carrying a bouquet of "Variatess San José". Her niece, Barbara, in pink tafeta, and her nephew, Ernest, were the train-bearers. The Misses Beryl Simmons and Thelma Machado were the admirable Flower Girls, attired in blue, tafeta. Their baskets were of a "Chick" model. In exquisite gowns of tafeta and net with pink head gears, adorned with flowers and bouquets of coronation roses, Lola Hilarion, Inez State, Elena Douglas and Stephany Grant of San José performed the role of Bridemaids. They were escorted by Messrs. Bresford Duncan, Delroy Hunter, Egbert Rivers and George Curling of San José. Miss Claris Johnson, the Chief, was effectively gowned in harmony with the colour and design of her associate maids.

As effected by the Rev. R. R. Hubert, with our budding Priest, Mr. Roberto Evans, serving, the religious ceremony was deeply penetrating. After its close, the guests walked to the St. Mark's Parish Hall, where the reception was held. The novelty of throwing the Bridal Bouquet evoked much merriment, and in the shuffle, Miss Stephany Grant took the catch. In place of the time-worn system of heaving others cut their cake, the the Bride and Groom effected same.

The Bestman, Mr. Thomas Allen, delivered the opening remarks while Mr. Leslie Angus solicited the Blessing and presided as Master of Ceremony. Space does not permit the mentioning of the names of the speakers who showered their respective congratulations, but we owe a debt to mention Messrs. James Murray and Daniel Pugh, the fathers of the newly-weds.

In addition to the guests already mentioned from San José were Messrs. Rupert and Lawrence Henriquez, brothers of the Groom; who were accompanied by their wives; Mrs. Ruth Bell Pugh, an aunt of the Groom, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mason; Mr. and Mrs. Stedrick Kerr; Mr. and Mrs.

AMPLE REPRESENTATION OF OUTSTANDING PERSONAGES

The Methodists of this city provided ample representations, on the evening of the 3rd. instant, with respect to some of the outstanding personalities of the Island of Jamaica.

A brief entertaining programme, presided over by the Rev. J. P. Holmes, paved the way for the Rally. Among the items were the recitation of Miss M. Mullings and "Virginia" by Mr. H. Van horn. A Playe, entitled "Mrs. Leroy's paying guests," was also presented. The portrayal was highly appreciated.

The order of the Rally was — Mrs. L. Morris Nibbs, spoken for by Mrs. Stanley Blake; Miss Amy Bailey personified by Mrs. Iris Williams, Miss Una Marson's biography was told by Miss Edith Grant, who earned third position in the final. Mrs. Rebecca Sa-

CAMPAIGN AGAINST CRUELTY TO DOMESTIC ANIMALS

NO ASYLUM IN NEUTRAL COUNTRIES FOR H. DUCE

The few neutral countries have been warned by the Allied Nations against affording an asylum to Benito

Mussolini or any other member of the Axis Party according to the instructions simultaneously dispatched by the governing authorities of Great Britain, the United States of America and the Soviet Union, through their respective diplomatic representatives in the non-belligerent countries in Europe and the Republic of Argentine in this hemisphere.

The attention of the neutrals has been directed to the fact that the extending of hospitality to such persons will be regarded as a direct infraction of the principles of the war in which the United Nations are engaged.

Ofentimes our pity and feelings of sympathy are aroused when confronted with the acts of cruelty extended to the poor unfortunate dumb animals by man, — their superior in the same Kingdom.

Many of the owners or users of the domestic creatures frequently give them much heavier loads than they can carry, and ill-treat them because of their inability to perform an impossible task. Others will utilize these willing beasts while they suffer from badly bruised or sore backs, giving little or no regard to the fact that with every move they make the pressure of the load on the affected part causes them the greatest pain.

CITY PLAYGROUND URGENTLY NEEDS CLEANING

The Sport Club, who frequent the city playground, have effected several solicitations, we are informed to our highly esteemed Municipal Fathers for an aid toward the cutting of the tall growth of grass, which not only embarrasses the players but gives the ground the appearance of a pasture and produces an exceedingly ugly impresion on the visitors who, from time to time, fraternize with us in the realm of sports. We are assured that the Cubs Sport Club so me weeks ago, stood the expense of partially clearing the ground.

As it is known that our Municipal Fathers always give attention to all which pertain to our general welfare and advancement, the apparent inattention regarding the playground is due, we are sanguine, to the demands which more pressing matters have made on them, but which in no way affects their sympathy for our much needed out-door exercises and sporting requirements.

WITH THE SALVATION ARMY

Quite a stir was evidenced among the local Salvation Army circle during the visit of Colonel H. Hodgson, the Territorial Commander of Central America and the West Indies. On leaving Jamaica, he was joined at Cristobal by Adjutant Fisher. These two religious leaders were the recipients of the most cordial greeting while in our city. So dense was the gathering at one their open air meetings that one was reminded of the recorded assemblies of the great Apostle Paul, in his journeys through Asia Minor. Sitting accommodation was at a premium at the respective services conducted in the Hall.

The distinguished visitors were the guests of the Hotel Hispana America, operated by Mr. Ernest Cecil Lewis they are said to have expressed deep satisfaction for the courteous treatment afforded them.

LAST SUNDAY AFTERNOON'S FOOT-BALL ENCOUNTER

The Heredianos came and whipped the reinforced Jupiters to the tune of Five goals against a Single

A very sympathetic temperature prevailed during the afternoon hours last Sunday. Headed by the Military Band, the players of both teams, augmented by a number of sporting fans, marched in a picturesque manner, along commercial avenue to the playground. Leaving everything else undone the spectators, representative of all ranks, attended the game in an overwhelming number. Miss Maria Reyes, to whom the match was dedicated, gracefully initiated the play.

Within the space of five minutes after the start, an ill wind blew against the home-esters, when Osmond Evans, one of our most formidable goalies, got off his balance and in attempting to interfere with a ball travelling outside his territory, fell and Heredia's sharp shooter of the left wing earned the first goal. The visitors controlled the ball from this stage. Their aggressiveness was rather effective. The displays of technique and passes were of an emotional character. Our right wing, very unfortunately, missed two "ear-marked" shots by having widely pulled his trigger. By the movement of don Roberto Blanco, the Home team's President, one could gather he meant to say — "That's not the way my Boys". Heredia earned three goals against a nil for Jupiter at the call of the rest period.

On resuming, the city players substituted Picho for Esquivel and Jimenez, the half center, for Stanley Wade of the Gimnastica. Though Fate maintained its grip on our Boys, the changes stimulated things to such a degree that a penalty trapped the visitors and Pocas registered the shot. Judging from the manner they steamed up after the single was gained, it appeared the guests were bent on playing us to a "shut out". According to a popular slogan play developed into "iron against iron", as opposition was met by opposition and tripping by tripping, when suddenly Heredia's right gained the fifth shot for his side, and the game closed without any further changes.

Miss Reyes, the honored guest, presented a costly ball to the Captain of the visiting team

DR. FLOYD FLORIO A VISITOR

Our city was graced during the earlier days of the week in course, with the welcomed presence of Doctor Floyd Florio of Denver, Colorado, United States of America; where it is understood he occupies the position of Instructor in the Medical University.

MR. FERNANDO ASCH REFERS TO COMING VISIT OF H. E. THE PRESIDENT

All things indicate that the twenty-second day of the present month will be of outstanding importance for the general welfare of our Province. On this day His Excellency the President of the Republic has agreed to visit us, in response to the solicitation of a number of our citizens who evince a lively interest in all which tend toward the betterment of our Zone, particularly in the realm of agricultural activities.

In this connection we take pleasure in releasing the expressions Mr. Fernando Asch made at a visit he recently paid us. As is well known, Mr. Asch is one of our most energetic and unselfishly disposed agriculturists, his outstanding desire being the advancement of our economic and other interests. He has been displaying a most praiseworthy attitude with respect to the approaching visit of Dr. Calderon Guardia. His reclamations were as follows.

The Province of Limon desires to accord His Excellency the President of the Republic a sincere homage in gratefulness for the decided aid he has given the Cacao industry by presenting the lifting of the tramway at Penuhurst, which would have mortally affected the economic condition of hundreds of humble agriculturists of that district and directly prejudice national economy by paralyzing the sale of the Cacao; his dignified intervention favourably resolved the chaotic situation. It is also our wish he said to express our great appreciation for the settling of the matter of the country's boundary with Panama, an act transcendental for the tranquility of our peoples; also for the bringing into effect of the Social Guarantees system which accords equality to the great mass of Costarri-

DEDICATION OF NEW BANNER OF PHILHARMONIC CHOIR

Interwoven with the evening service at the St. Mark's Church last Sunday, the artistically designed and splendidly accomplished Banner of the Philharmonic Choir was dedicated by the Rector, the Rev. W. James Evans. The emblematic work is significant of the functions of the Philharmonic — a name which occupies a central position on the emblem.

This very useful unit of the St. Mark's Parish was organized on the sixteenth of June 1937 and has had a most outstanding career during its six years of life. The dedication ceremony was rather appealing. The Rector's discourse was spread over a network of music, its charm and benefits a science which had found acceptance in the very souls of the Seers and Sages. It is understood that the Banner was designed by Mr. James Messam, the very energetic Secretary of the Choir, and the work accomplished by Mr. Michael Newton of artistic fame.

We heartily congratulate the Choir.

The Atlantic Voice congratulates Mr. Asch and the other Limonenses who have organized the festivity. It is understood that Mr. Asch has distributed thousands of circulars throughout the length and breadth of the Province, inviting the people to participate in the joyous event. As a result, it is expected that not less than five thousand souls will be on hand to bid Dr. Calderon Guardia and his distinguished party a heartfelt welcome

NEW WAR WORDS

When after ten years of constant preparation, utilising the lessons given in General de Gaulle's teachings, the Huns surprised the smaller nations in Europe with their "Blitzkrieg" methods, they thought they had really found the stick with which to beat the whole world. Real war, however, unlike plain fire, is a good master if a bad servant, and the United Nations soon learnt their lessons too, as has since been shown in Egypt, Libya, Tunisia, Sicily and soon may we hope in the much-vaunted "Fortress Europe", which may shortly become merely the shattered "Fort Naziland". Remember how the nazis gleefully thought they had done something clever when they invented the word "coventrate", for their concentrated raids, the first of which badly damaged the peaceful little country-town of Coventry. Well, the R. A. F. have gone somewhat better. The first 1000-bomber raid was over the huncity of Cologne, one of the most important river-ports and rail-centres in Europe, through which all routes led if you wanted to get from Western Europe to Poland, Czechoslovakia, and other countries which have for the time being been overrun by the Hitler-horde. This big-scale-air-bombing can quite easily justify the title of "Colonization", and Hamburg in these last few weeks is knowing something of the meaning of this sprinkling of the bitter waters of Cologne in the concrete or rather metallic form that the RAF now so well carries out. That historic 30 May 1942, was one of the first evidences that the Huns' ideas of colonizing the whole world was going to be ousted by "colonization" of their own industrial centres and warplants, until the menace of Germany has been eliminated entirely from a world which now is tired of the Prussian spirit.

DIPLOMACY "A LA MODE"

The President of a neutral republic was blessed not so long ago with the visit of a new ambassador from Hungary. At the presentation of credentials, the following conversation took place: "What country do you represent?" — "The Kingdom of Hungary." "Hmhm! So you have a King?" — "No we are ruled by Admiral Horthy." "Oh! An admiral — so you must have a Navy?" — "No, Your Excellency, we have no fleet." "Hmhm! Then, I suppose you're neutral?" — "No, Excellency, we are at war with Russia." "I see! I suppose one may ask why?" — "Because Excellency, we have a claim on Transylvania." "O-oh! So Russia has seized Transylvania?" — "No, Rumania's got that." "Well, well! In that case, you must be at war with Rumania too?" — "No, Excellency. The Rumanians are our allies." Unable to stand this any longer, the President seized his telephone, and stifling the emotion in his voice, asked for someone to come quickly from the madhouse, to take charge of his peculiar visitant.

NEGRO AVIATRIX

It was recently announced the U. S. War Department had commissioned Willa Brown as Lieutenant, Civil Air Patrol, in the only Squadron in the U. S. A. staffed wholly by Negro officers and located at Harlem Airport, Chicago.

Willa Brown is a striking personality who occupies a unique place both in the world of aviation and of Negro womanhood. She is undoubtedly the world's leading colored aviatrix. She was also acclaimed as one of the leaders of that tenth part of the whole American nation which is of African origin. She holds that exalted position with the dignity of a true soldier today.

Carrying on the tradition of the famous Bessie Coleman, first negro aviatrix who was killed in a crash, Willa Brown built up a considerable reputation for herself before the war flying her own planes. She was first inspired by the example of Col. John Richardson a gallant colored flyer who volunteered for service in Ethiopia in 1931 and who fought against the Italians there with distinction. Operating from Harlem Airfield, which was a privately owned establishment, Willa Brown did much to encourage aviation among Chicago's negro population.

DURNED N-UTTY B-UNKUM

German "official" news, remarkable as everybody knows for allround falsity and flamboyance, inexactitude and exaggeration, right from the start of the war is normally dattelined D. N. B., short for Deutsches Nachrichten-Buro (German Official News Service). The Huns themselves soon said it really meant "D-arn N-ichts B-erichten" meaning "D-aren't Report", though now we think they'll be saying more often "D-aren't N-otify B-ombing". In England, everybody knew of course that the real warning in these letters was "D-o N-ot B-elieve", whilst the natural wit of a Frenchman soon discovered the answer was "D-ernières N-ouvelles — B-lagues", or, as our North American friends would say "Stop Press—Hoocy!". Spaniards got much the same idea and came out with "D-ifusiones N-otoriamente B-ombásticas", as we should say "Bally Bad Bleating", but it was left for an Italian mind to add the final touch, for, after having been so cruelly deceived for their blind faith in their "Master's Voice" in Abyssinia, El Alamein, Cyrenaica, Tripolitania, Tunis and now Sicily, the saddened descendants of Romulus, Remus, Horatius, and Appius Claudius, run around saying that the notorious D. N. B. really indicates "D-lamo N-otizie B-ugliarde" or "D-octor-Goebbel's N-asty B-alderdash".

BRITAIN'S QUEEN CELEBRATES HER BIRTHDAY

H. M. the Queen

Forty three years ago last Wednesday was born at the Scotch Castle of Glamis, home of age-old traditions dating from the time of Macbeth, immortalised in Shakespeare's famous tragedy, the Lady Elizabeth Angela Eowes Lyon who in her twenty third year became the wife of the then Duke of York, now head of the vast British Commonwealth of Nations. This noble lady assumed on her husband's accession, without cavil, her duties as Queen, and so well has she acquitted herself, that she stands now as the true prototype and example to all British womanhood. Her unaffected dignity, sweet and sympathetic nature, and sincere interest in the welfare of all her subjects, and in particular of those of her own sex, have endeared her to all hearts wherethrough runs British blood.

During the years of peace, she wended her dainty way through the highest salons and the poorest quarters, learning thoroughly the problems of her people, acquiring understanding of the minds and aspirations of all classes from the highest to the lowest, and earning the heartfelt homage and admiration of all.

Then came the war, and Queen Elizabeth found fresh and unexpected ways of getting even closer to the hearts of her people. Nazi bombers gleefully destroyed a portion of Buckingham Palace, but did not realise that by such wanton act they helped to bring home to the ordinary man, one of the fundamental principles of British democracy, namely that the kingdom's rulers did not esteem themselves overlords or members of a higher race than their subjects and, by putting the Royal family thus on a par in suffering with the meanest of their fellowmen, bound still closer the sentimental and homely ties which unite the King and Queen with the ordinary Britons who earn their livings in a different and perhaps more banal way. For Britain's Sovereigns do indeed earn their livelihood, and depend absolutely upon the will of their people for the recompenses which they gain in return for their services as representatives in earthly form of the mystic spirit which binds the British races together throughout the world. Visiting the devastated dwellings of her less fortunate subjects, Queen Elizabeth was able to evidence

THESE ETHIOPAN COMMANDOS

A suggestion recently emanated from the Ethiopian Legation in London that a picked force of Ethiopian commandos should spearhead the invasion of Italy. The suggestion has caught on. People seem to feel that it would be poetic justice.

These Commandos have been in training for some time and the Ethiopian government recently stated that their army "is ready to fight anywhere at any time beside the Allies". What better place than in the rugged, arid mountains of Sicily and southern Italy and at the time of the coming Allied Invasion?

These Ethiopians need practically no schooling in the technique of the Commando. In fact they can and have taught many tricks to our own Commandos because they are born fighters and have been carrying on a relentless guerrilla warfare against the Italians in the mountains of their own country for the past six years. The Amharas of the northern part of the country never gave up to the Italians. Instead, they retreated into areas of "impossible" country and carried on the war with commando tactics.

There they lived underground, travelling at night in irregular bands armed with an assortment of weapons ranging from spears to modern automatic rifles filched from the Italian garrisons upon which they swooped in the black of night. They are mountaineers who go barefoot over the roughest ground. They can sleep in the chill mists of high mountains practically without covering and they seem to be able to subsist on scraps of natural vegetation that anybody else would consider inedible.

These Commandos played a major role in the reconquest of their own country in 1941. Now they have been organised into regular commandos and are being equipped with modern weapons. Dropped by parachute or otherwise let loose in the mountains of Italy they would sow havoc and terror in the corny boot of the Axis.

once more her spirit of comradeship and to speak with the housewife in her shattered home on equal terms, to sympathise without affectation over the ruin of household treasures, and to show her fine feelings of companionship by helping in many cases with personal gifts, and in the organisation of special services for relief of the distress caused by the actions of the bestial enemy, who without traditions of his own to look back upon, sought to eradicate the relics and household gods of all Britons, of the home-loving Royal Family as well as of the homely man-in-the-street.

JAMAICAN CHAIRMAN OF MISSIONARY SOCIETY

A man need not tote a rifle or wear funny-coloured clothes to fight the Axis. He need not concern himself primarily with the war effort and yet he may have a world wide influence against the Axis. Dr. Harold Moody is such a man.

Dr. Moody is a well-known figure in London and is a man of many parts. He practices as a medical man in a London district and is a trusted companion to thousands in what he himself calls "some of my back streets." He has for many years been the leader and the driving force in the organisation known as the League of Coloured Peoples which has done much good work among colonial visitors to England. In June '33 this year he was elected Chairman of the Board of the London Missionary Society of England. He is the first coloured chairman in the history of the Missionary Societies.

This leader of his race hails from Jamaica where his ninety year old mother resides. Like all good Jamaicans his thoughts are constantly hovering over the Caribbean's island of Jade and his first observation on being told of his appointment, was to the effect that he was glad both for his mother's and Jamaica's sake.

Dr. Moody outlined his platform as a suggestion that all Christian forces both in England and the U. S. be marshalled to prepare a plan for the advancement of all Africa educationally, economically, socially, politically, morally and spiritually. The plan of State cum Church. plan of State cum Church.
