GRAVES DIFICULTADES PARA LA EXPORTACION DE CACAO A COLOMBIA

Para conocimiento de nuestros lectores reproducimos el Decreto del Gobierno de la República de Colombia sobre la importación a ese país de cacao. Nosotros consideramos que la situación es difícil para nuestros exportadores por ser Colombia el país donde mejores cotizaciones de ese artículo pueden conseguirse.

EN PUERTO VIEJO DE LIMON UNA VACA TUVO DOS TERNEROS CON OCHO DIAS DE DIFERENCIA ENTRE EL NACIMIENTO DE CADA UNO

Nuestro estimable corresponsal en Puerto Viejo, de Limón, nos informa de un suceso que ha llamado poderosamente la atención en todo aquel caserío. Es el caso de una vaca que el día 22 de junio pasado, dió a luz un ternero macho y el día 29 del mismo mes, dió a luz una ternera.

El caso en realidad, es ex-traordinario y por esto se considera sensacional en aquel distrito. La vaca en referencia, da suficiente leche para la alimentación de su cría y la pareja de terneros así nacidos se encuentra en perfecto estado de salud y conservación.

Por lo raro del suceso, la damos a conocer de nuestros lectores.

FORMAL DENUNCIA ANTE EL AGENTE PRINCIPAL DE POLICIA DE MOIN PRESENTAN LOS PEQUEÑOS PRODUCTORES DE ESE LUGAR

Don Alfonso Sovalbarro, propietario de un potrero por el cual transitaban, destruyó el puente, que allí existe, dejándolos aislados para transportar sus productos al mercado Pequeños Productores de Moin se quejan al Agente Principal de Policía de dicho lugar por privarles el uso de un camino que hace veinte años ocupan, la queja de estos campesinos la consideramos justa porque de esta forma se está manteniendo la pequeña Agricultura en otra parte de este mismo número nos referimos a los atropellos que se están cometiendo con estas gentes que trabajan la tierra. Cuán do se les hará justicia a los Campesinos de esta Zona? A continuación la queja de los campesinos de Moin.

SIGUEN LOS ATROPELLOS PERJUDICANDO A LOS CAMPESINOS DE LA ZONA ATLANTICA

Hace algunos días publicamos quejas de los campesinos de la línea de Zent que están siendo perjudicados por un señor Kitts, nos informaban los campesinos de dicho lugar que este señor había ordenado levantar la línea del tranvía de "Chiripó" con grave perjuicio para la agricultura de esta zona, se elevaron quejas a la Secretaría de Agricultura, sin que hasta el momento se hayan tomado medidas para defender a estos luchadores campesinos. Seguirán soportando por más tiempo esta grave situación? Para poder sacar sus productos han solicitado de este señor el carro tranvía con sus respectivos aperos, pagándole el valor de su alquiler, y, no ha logrado conseguirlo. Será justo que estos esforzados trabajadores tengan que perder las cosechas por falta de medios para transportarlos?

Consideramos que es hora ya de tomar en cuenta los esfuerzos que están haciendo los campesinos de esta zona por hacer producir la tierra, no es estrujándolos como se hace producir esta tierra, dia-

MAYOR LIBERALIDAD EN CUANTO A LA EXPORTACION A LOS ESTADOS UNIDOS DEL CAFE, BANANOS Y CACAO

La Oficina de Administración de Precios de ese país, ha dispuesto que estos productos, procedentes de los países del Centro América y del Caribe gocen de mayor liberalidad

Dejarán de estar sujetos esos países en cuanto a su adquisición y distribución, a las medidas restrictivas que impusiera dicha Junta para la defensa económica de guerra

En lo futuro, las exportaciones de esos productos podrán tomar mayor auge en los Estados Unidos, sobre todo porque ha comenzado dicha nación a re-exportar esos y otros productos tropicales a las regiones de Europa liberadas del yugo nazi

Para facilitar el embarque de esos productos, las autoridades norteamericanas han tratado de que se continúe la política de alzar carga de puertos Centroamericanos y antillanos por los barcos que regresen de Europa por el Atlántico medio o sur.

Estaba de Dios que esta tarde gris y lluviosa la Parca implacable lanzaría su túnica negra para cubrir con ella a un héroe lleno de juventud, de entusiasmo y de ideales. A un héroe capaz de medir su hazaña con los superhombres de Battan y Corregidor, porque como ellos también marchaba tras un ideal de grandeza y defendía gallardamente un triunfo bravamente conquistado. Sabía que un momento de duda o de temor lesionaría profundamente el blason conquistado y prefrirí jugarse entero y ofrendar así gloriosamente su preciosa vida. Fue la decisión suprema que el Hacedor roció sobre las almas puras para elevarlas hasta el altar inaccesible de los grandes héroes; hasta esa cúpula radiante de resplandores que es faro y es guía donde quemamos el incienso de nuestra fe y nuestra admiración. En nuestro pecho arde hoy radiante la pira de nuestra devoción para mantener por toda eternidad el calor vivificante y confortador del recuerdo de Solanito. Las lágrimas de sus afligidos compañeros florecieron en su tumba como ofrenda de un cariño verdadero que rociarán las cascadas de los cielos convertidas en diamantes y esmeraldas. Fue la corona más fina y delicada con que muchos mortales pueden engranar su última morada. La demostración del cariño y el apego que se siente por los seres nobles. Por esos res que perfuman y engalanan con su grandeza espiritual a todo aquello que rodea, porque saben inspirar confianza y saben perfilar hasta lo más profundo del espíritu humano.

Loor a los grandes héroes que hoy libran la avanzada de un mundo mejor! Loor a los grandes héroes que con sus gloriosas hazañas nos hacen ver la mezquindad de nuestro espíritu. Loor a que como Solanito sabían amar alma, vida y corazón forjar un ideal, luchar por él y ofrendar sus vidas en el desprendimiento de un superior, porque saben con su ejemplo reivindicar el mundo de sus negras pas!

NOTAS EDITORIALES

HARIA FALTA UN MINISTRO

En la primera página de este mismo número publicamos una noticia grave. Grave no solamente para nuestra provincia sino también para la economía de todo el país.

El Gobierno de Colombia acaba de dictar un decreto sometiendo la importación de cacao a determinados requisitos. De los cinco artículos que contiene el decreto, nos interesa comentar los tres primeros:

Exigencia de un certificado de sanidad extendido por las autoridades competentes en que se haga constar "que los cargamentos están libres de insectos y que su estado sanitario es perfecto".

"Que los cargamentos de cacao deberán enviarse en doble empaque de papel o fibra nuevos y previamente desinfectados".

Y que no obstante los certificados y el doble empaque "si llegan infectados de insectos serán reembarcados o incinerados a la mayor brevedad.

Estas precauciones que impone el Gobierno de Colombia han de afectar sencillamente nuestra exportación de cacao. Ese país hermano es el que paga los mejores precios y a donde hay mayor facilidad de exportar en las actuales circunstancias.

No acertamos a explicarnos las razones que tenga el Gobierno de la República hermana para exigir un certificado de sanidad a un producto que ha pasado por los procesos naturales de fermentación y seca, que necesariamente han de destruir cualquier germen infeccioso. Ni nos explicamos tampoco qué lo ha movido al requisito del doble empaque, si en el que se remite es lo suficientemente bueno para evitar roturas.

Pero estas observaciones que nosotros hacemos superficialmente deberían ser estudiadas por el gobierno. El cacao es el segundo producto de exportación de Costa Rica. No menos de cien mil quintales enviamos anualmente a los mercados extranjeros. La provincia de Limón vive casi exclusivamente del cacao. Si ésta que es nuestra única fuente de vida se va a cegar en esa forma, será completa nuestra ruina.

No tenemos ante el Gobierno de Colombia ninguna representación diplomática a quien encomendar la gestión necesaria. Este sería el momento de acreditar ante nuestra hermana del sur un representante diplomático que estreche los lazos de la amistad que desde hace años tenemos con Colombia. Este sería el momento de hacer buenas las bellas palabras de las Américas Unidas, Unidas Vencerán.

Hay que tratar de romper las barreras comerciales que dificultan el libre comercio entre los pueblos. En el gobierno de Colombia estamos seguros que encontraremos la tradicional gentileza y buena voluntad que ha tenido siempre para nosotros desde los viejos tiempos del tratado de límites. Cualquier gestión que hagamos será atendida... por qué quedarnos quietos?

LA CAMARA DE COMERCIO DE LIMON

Un grupo de comerciantes de esta ciudad ha fundado una Cámara de Comercio de Limón, filial de la que en San José está funcionando desde hace muchos años. Figuran en la Directiva Provisional los señores Hernán Salas, Mauro F. Alvarado, Luis Jiménez Acón y Jaime Romero Ching. Como Asesor Legal ha sido designado el licenciado don Fernando del Barco. Los nombres que citamos son garantía de seriedad y de honradez a la citada asociación.

El propósito esencial es simplemente la defensa de los intereses del comercio en el momento actual. Piensan los comerciantes con razón que es necesario estar unidos y desarrollar sus actividades comerciales en forma armónica y consciente.

El éxito inicial es bastante halagüeño. Más de cien comerciantes se han afiliado hasta la fecha y los interesados esperan duplicar ese número en estos quince días entrantes.

Nos parece una excelente idea. El comercio de Limón como todas las otras ramas de la actividad de esta provincia, ha sido siempre ignorado en la meseta central. A los sectores políticos, gubernativos o comerciales no llega nunca la voz que salepropósitos.

de esta provincia en demanda de una igualdad de trato cuando menos.

Si esta Cámara de Comercio de Limón que ahora se funda, se constituye en entidad seria y consciente no sólo de sus propios derechos sino también de sus obligaciones; si se afilia a la Cámara de Comercio de San José, es seguro que podrá ejercer mayor influencia y obtener atención para los muchos problemas que confronta el comercio de Limón en los actuales momentos.

Le deseamos a la nueva asociación todo el éxito que merecen y les ofrecemos todo el apoyo que sea necesario para el desarrollo de sus Limón, 5 de julio de 1944 (f) Abel Robles, gobernador. Fueron notificados: (firmas) J. Hernández Poveda, F. Picado Sáenz, José Luis Carballo.—Se excusaron de asistir y firman los siguientes regidores: V. E. Echeverría, Hernán Esquivel C. y R. Duarte S."

No se pudo notificar a los regidores don Hernán Salas, por encontrarse en San José y a don William Helibrón Y., por no encontrarse en esta ciudad. Muy atento servidor. (f) Abel Robles, gobernador.

Art. 2º—Habiéndose discutido en asocio del señor jefe de sanidad las medidas indispensables a tomar para prevenir que la parálisis infantil invada la población, se acordó definitivamente:

1º—Que la jefatura de sanidad haga cumplir con lo que disponen los artículos 322, 355, 335 y 334 del Código Sanitario, los que establecen por su orden:

"Los productos alimenticios deberán mantenerse en los lugares de depósito o de venta, protegidos contra el polvo, las moscas y demás insectos"

"En las capitales de provincias y poblaciones de más de 5 mil habitantes, nadie podrá establecer puestos para la venta de productos alimenticios, en las aceras, plazas y parques públicos, sin la previa autorización del jefe de sanidad o autoridad correspondiente, el cual fijará en cada caso las condiciones sanitarias para su instalación y funcionamiento".

"La construcción, modificación o reparación de los sistemas de cisternas y tanques sépticos de todas las poblaciones de la República estará bajo el control y la vigilancia de la Secretaría de Salubridad".

"Todos los vehículos destinados al servicio público, que transporten pasajeros o animales, estarán sujetos a las medidas higiénicas que fijen los reglamentos".

2º—Solicitar a la Secretaría de Salubridad por el órgano correspondiente que del dinero que se votará por el congreso para la campaña preventiva de la parálisis infantil sea invertida una parte en el mejoramiento de las condiciones sanitarias de esta ciudad.

3º—Que la Jefatura de Sanidad conceda doce horas de término a los propietarios de patios de comunidad e inquilinos de casas, para la limpieza de dichos patios y pasados ese término, si no hubieren iniciado el trabajo ordenado, se proceda a juzgarlos por desobediencia y se haga la limpieza por las cuadrillas del departamento cobrándolo luego con el recargo de ley a quien correspondiera.

4º—Autorizar al señor gobernador para aumentar las cuadrillas y empleados de la oficina de higiene, con cargo a la partida medio personal de sanidad, mientras sea necesario, partida que oportunamente se reforzará en lo que se hubiere gastado.

5º—Dirigir nota al señor Secretario de Fomento, por el órgano correspondiente, comunicándole que el funcionamiento de la cañería es tan defectuoso que amenaza quedar interrumpido totalmente en fecha próxima, pues uno de los motores está en muy mal estado y el otro no funciona del todo, por lo que se le ruega muy especialmente autorizar los gastos que las reparaciones demanden, ya que si la ciudad queda sin servicio de cañería, las medidas de higiene que se han tomado no darán ningún resultado y sería imposible controlar la polimie. A las 21 horas terminaron las sesiones. A las 21 horas terminaron las sesiones. A las 21 horas terminaron las sesiones.

UN HOGAR DIGNO Y DICHOSO ENVUELTO EN LAGRIMAS Y ENLUTADO

Murió doña Clara Morera Avila de la Ota noche del 6. del presente mes

Cuando ayer no más, orgullosa y complacida se sentaba en su hogar, en medio de su amado y querido esposo de sus amantes e idolatrados hijos, la Parca siempre acajonera, dejó caer el hilo de la penosa enfermedad, que por muchos meses tuvo en delicado estado. La ciencia Médica por más esfuerzos que hizo con múltiples tratamientos no pudo freerle cura, sino alivio! Doña Clara Morera Avila, nació en la democrática ciudad de Alajuela, la tierra amada donde nació el Erizo el año 1912, con la mayoría de sus familiares se trasladó a este puerto. Aquí contrajo matrimonio el seis de agosto de mil novecientos diecisiete con el culto y cumplido caballero Guanacasteco, don Nicolás de la O. Miran- ta, — estimado amigo y colaborador activísimo de este semanario, — en cuyo hogar han habido ocho hijos: cinco varones y tres mujeres: Federico, José Arcadio, Santiago, Franco y Mario; Olivia, Rosita y Clarice. Ahora en su muerte sólo le faltaba un mes para haber celebrado sus aniciadas bodas de plata. Mujer humilde, pero muy educada y comprensiva: atributos éstos que bien les había imprimido a sus hijos; esto aparte de su esposo, que con su cultura tos a sembrar arroz, frijoles y maíz, pero a los pequeños productores no necesitan de estas medidas, lo que estos campesinos necesitan es que, se les de tierras y medios para sacar sus productos, los grupos de pequeños productores son los que están con más de seos de cultivar la tierra, pero si se encuentran con que los que tienen los medios de transporte niegan la cooperación a estos trabajadores, cómo vamos a producir arroz, frijoles y maíz? Qué hay que hacer?

Obligar por una ley del conpuesta a pruebas, era un Símbolo de su hogar, de amor y de cariño. La muerte de esta dama de la clase obrera deja un gran vacío en su medio, por sus portes de señora de su hogar y de esposa muy ejemplar. Así quedó demostrado en la manifestación de duelo que se le ofreció el día de su entierro; a ella concurrieron elementos de todos los sectores so-greso para que los medios de transporte en manos de las compañías, se pongan al servicio de los intereses del pueblo. Hay una ley de 23 de octubre de 1943, que prohíbe reventar las líneas de tranvía, de que ha servido esta ley? Si las hagan cumplir y mientras no tenemos autoridades que esto siga así, no lograremos que haya arroz, frijoles y maíz, mientras los señores de la Compañia Bananera de Costa Rica dueña de las tierras de esta zona, no coopere con el gobierno para hacer facilidades que pongan en condiciones de cultivar las que ella no utilice, viviremos todo el tiempo gritando por arroz, frijoles y maíz. Esta zona es rica en buenas tierras, que produciales; de lejanos lugares de la provincia donde había cultivado numerosas amistades que tanto la estimaron y por el crecido número de telegramas, tarjetas y cartas de pésame de amigos que no pudieron asistir. "La Voz Atlántica" al consignar en sus páginas éste triste aconte-ce de buena calidad todos los artículos que estamos necesitando para la vida del pueblo. Esperamos que con nuestros llamamientos publicados por la prensa, se tome en cuenta lo que realmente le conviene al país.

ATLANTIC VOICE

THE THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

No course of life is so prescribed and limited but that many actions must result from arbitrary election. Every one should plan his conduct by his own reflections and resolve whether to labour for the general good of mankind or to contract his beneficence to his family and dependants.

LAST SUNDAY'S WAR RELIEF DRIVE

We can only say, as did Eli of sacred memory, "it is the Lord, let Him doeth what seemeth Him best". Incessant were the rain showers during the night of Saturday, and up to the break of Sunday morn. Thereafter, cessations of the heavy drops of water occurred once in a while.

Notwithstanding this abnormal state, the display connected with the Procession through the principal thoroughfares of our city in aid of the Allied Nations War Relief Fund was magnificent. First-ranking officials of our Government, the Vice Consul of the United States of America, the Diplomatic Representative of the Republic of Nicaragua and the nationals of that country, the uniformed members of several of the sporting clubs domiciled in this city—all whole-heartedly associated themselves with the effort.

The decorated Floats of Great Britain and China, as well as the machine of the Volunteer Bomberos were greatly admired. The British display was of battleship design equipped with two eight inch cannon. The vehicle was fully decorated with a "Union Jack", and in bold letters was the word "Britannia". In the battleship rode Miss Kathleen Fuller richly gowned in representation of the all powerful nation whose navy rules the waves. Miss Alma Moss accompanied her as a sailor lad.

The Chinese Float was artistically bedecked, typical of an ancient dwelling of that country. Many youthful Chinese nationals rode in it.

Onlookers were seen in large numbers along the line of march and evidently contributed their generous "Bit".

MORE LOSSES FOR JAPANESE IN FAR EASTERN WAR

The Allied forces still deal the Japanese seriously. Of these 15,053, only 2,309 were killed, the remainder being made up of the wounded and missing.

Saipan places the Allied aerial units within four flying hours of Tokio.

The strategic Island of Saipan is now entirely controlled by the North Americans after much fighting which cost the enemy around 30,000 casualties, against 15,053 for the Americans. 44,000 Japanese are estimated surrounded in the woods of British New Guinea without the likelihood of securing their escape.

YEAR IX - LIMON, C. R., JULY 15th. 1944 - Nº 431

ON THE VARIOUS BATTLE FRONTS OF FRANCE AND ITALY

Notwithstanding the intensified opposition of the Germans, the Allied forces in France are reported to have secured further gains and more ground.

The Allied Supreme Command announce that the North American troops are moving from the Peninsular of Cherbourg in seven distinct sectors and to have occupied several townships of importance.

Violent fighting is in progress in the area between Saint Lo and Perieres, where the enemy launched one of their most furious counter attacks in an effort to detain General Bradley's offensive movements. The effort is reported to have failed totally and with such heavy losses to the Germans that their position is now regarded as weak and dangerous in that region.

In the eastern sector, the British continue to maintain their positions in the face of violent attacks, apart from certain small local gains by the enemy. Allied activities on the Italian battle fronts continue satisfactorily. The North Americans have pushed their advance to within eight miles of the port of Livorno, while the Polish troops are nearing Ancona. The occupation of these two ports will, it is said be of much value to the Allied in their assault against the Nazis "Gothic Line" of fortifications.

The Hindoo troops of the Eighth Army have captured the district of Musignano on the way to Florence.

THE FALL OF THE BASTILLE

Among yesterday's memorable events was that of the fall of the Bastille in the year 1789 which accorded France a new political constitution covering a program of outstanding reforms in place of the lengthened period of serious national embarrassment.

Coincident with that success which brought liberty, justice and individual happiness to the nationals of France, was the election of George Washington as the first President of the United States of America.

Today, among the armies of the United Nations are hundreds of thousands of the sons of the great North American Republic struggling heroically to re-establish that same liberty, justice and happiness placed in pawn for Hitlerism of the darkest type. The rays of a new sun will soon rise above the horizon for all true loyal sons of France. The storm breaks over the hordes of Hitler, who yet fight on the soil of France.

On this the 155th anniversary of the Fall of the Bastille we find the people of France enthused with a glorious hope for the rising of that other sun over their political horizon which will free their beloved country of the foul deeds of Nazi-fascism.

RUSSIANS APPROACH GERMAN FRONTIER

The Red Army's vigorous offensive, the most formidable of all launched against the Germans, continues its unbeaten advance westward over a frontage of 320 miles, from the Soviet Republics of the Baltic to the marshes of Pinsk in Poland, making new and important breaches in the weakened enemy defences.

The cavalry under the command of General Cherniak, hovsky are said to have reached a point less than thirty miles off the frontier of East Prussia.

Troops operating in the second Baltic front launched a new offensive some days ago and have already captured more than 1,000 populated districts on a front of nearly 100 miles. Among the important localities occupied is Idrissa situated sixty miles north of Polotsk. The enemy forces are reported retiring in great speed and much disorder.

The strategic city of Vilna, capital of Lithuania, is reported taken by the Soviets after days of heavy fighting. The Germans are said to have suffered casualties totalling 380,000 in the operations in this area.

Moscow advises that in view of the rapid approach of their forces toward the frontier of East Prussia, the Germans have initiated retreatments on a large scale from the Baltic fronts to give greater protection to their home territory; it has also been stated that a similar move may be made from the Balkans.

"TIE SCORE" BY BARCELONA AND GIMNASTICA

The opening match of the current season's Football League Fixtures connected the Barcelona and Gimnastica, the champion and sub-champion teams, on the afternoon of Sunday, a fortnight ago.

An overwhelming number of enthusiasts witnessed the game which, in the language of the young boosters, was "Iron and Iron". It was a hit and miss exercise, with his Satanic Majesty being assigned the hind most wheel where never a clash arose. That the Boys are all splendid sports, we well know, but rarely have they been seen riding the tempest in the manner they did on this occasion. The initial letters of the teams being B and G might have been the cause of the fireworks; they apparently took on the spirit of what is now taking place in Nazi occupied Europe, where the "B's" are attacking and the "G's" kicking back as much as they can. Notwithstanding the tossy billows, all obviously enjoyed the sail.

The match was dedicated to Lic. don Francisco Fonseca Chamier, one of our Deputies and Vicepresident of the National Congress. As he was, unfortunately, unable to be present, Colonel Fulgencio Campos was asked to initiate the play, which he did with his characteristic good will.

The Barcelonians earned their one goal during the first half of play by means of Macaron; while the single by the Gimnasticas was registered by way of a penalty and collected by Vinici. The game consequently closed with a "tie score".

NOTE—This report was also unavoidably held over from last Saturday's issue.

WELCOMED VISITOR CONCLUDES VISIT

The Rev. D. Cooper, of the Almirante Anglican Cure, who had been visiting our city during the past four weeks, left by Thursday's air transportation to resume his pastoral responsibilities.

In the company of Mrs. W. J. Evans, the esteemed President of the Mothers' Union, he graced the staging of the drama in the Parish Hall last Tuesday night and very impressive were his remarks of appreciation for the magnificent portrayal and general splendid demonstration. He expressed his regret for the absence of the Rector who had left for the Capital on matters pertaining to the Parish. During his stay here, he conducted services in St. Mark's and at some of the Line Missions. He was heartily welcomed everywhere.

THE ST. MARK'S ANNIVERSARY PROGRAMME

We are drawing near to two of the important items listed on the programme of the St. Mark's anniversary Festivities.

The Women's Life Problem Club will take the front line on the night of Monday the 17th instant, with an "Old Fashioned Bazaar" on the Church Lawn. As we have been unable, despite our efforts, to find out what is taking place, we cannot say how things are shaping, there is, therefore, no other way of knowing what is in store than to attend the function on the second night from this. Know the characteristic good taste of the problemers we are sure the going will be wondrous.

Then, in another eight nights (the 24th instant), the Parish Hall will rack with the thundering voices of the Prosecuting and Defending Barristers - at - law in the famous Mock Trial for murder in the first degree. His Honour, the Chief Justice, will no doubt have the time of his judicial life preventing these two legal talents from getting into personal contact. We can imagine His Honour time and again, calling for "Order, gentlemen, order in the King's Court," and one of the Attorneys responding — but Your Monour, on a point of jurisprudence, I object, and the Judge exclaiming — "be cam my learned Mr. Sparking." This entertainment promises to be a sensational awakening, therefore none should be absent.

MRS. CLARA MORERA AVILA DE LA O SLEEPS IN DEATH

We mourn and share the sorrow which our deeply regarded fellow citizen and high functionary, don Nicolas de la O Miranda, his children and others suffer for the irreparable loss sustained by the death of their beloved wife, mother and relative, Mrs. Clara Morera Avila de la O, who succumbed to her lingering illness during the night of the 6th. instant.

Our late highly cultured citizen was born in Alajuela and with her parents came to reside in this city in the year 1912. On the 6th. of August 1919 she contracted marriage with don Nicolas.

Their union has been blessed with five sons and three daughters. The deceased belonged to the type of human being who would not knowingly set foot on an ant.

The funeral service, on the afternoon following that of her death, was most impressively observed in our Cathedral, and truly manifested the deep sorrow interwoven with the wide esteem in which she was held. The concourse of mourners and sympathisers included persons from all sections of our community. May the soul of the departed good citizen find perfect peace evermore.

MISSIONARY MEETING BY METHODISTS

Like a refreshing shower to a thirsty land was the Missionary Meeting, held by the Methodists in the city church on the night of the 28th. ultimo. More than three hundred persons attended and highly appreciated the Messages so inspiringly propounded by the Rev. J. P. Holmes, Minister of the Circuit; Major T. Lynch of the Salvation Army; the Rev. W. Forde of the Baptist Denomination, who holds pioneering rank among the Ministers of the Protestant Churches in these parts, and the Rev. Dean Lewis of the Central American Mission established in San Jose.

The Major led his hearers into "Funny Land", then quickly changed the scene and thought with an address based on the "Light of the world".

The Rev. Mr. Forde gave a most illuminating and historical discourse which treated on the establishment of the Wesleyan Methodist Denomination on this continent of ours, and emphasized the fact that from the early start in Antigua, one of the Islands of the Lesser Antilles, had spread the Methodist Mission work in this domain. The Rev. Dean Lewis based his interesting Message on St. Paul's writings to the Romans. He is obviously a young evangelist, but the appeal he threw out could only have emanated from a deep Christian fountain.

Mr. Leslie Angus, the Circuit's Steward, occupied his assigned seat on the rostrum but due to his still impaired health, we were not afforded the pleasure of listening to his seasoning voice so warmly cherished at all times.

The report on the past year's activities in the Mission Field, as read by the Rev. Mr. Holmes, was self-explanatory, and clearly disclosed that the representatives of the Denomination are continuing to unfold the banner of Christ in all parts of the universe.

NOTE—The above was unfortunately shut out from last impression.

DEATH OF MRS. H. ALLEN OF 28 MILES

The district of 28 Miles has suffered the loss of a very respected and useful resident by the death of Mrs. Kandie Allen on the 28th. of last month.

The deceased came to this country in the year 1905 from Blackborough in the parish of St. Andrew, Jamaica, and resided for a number of years at Guacimo, where it is said she displayed much Christian characteristics. She later went to 28 Miles where she continued to pursue her exemplified career. The Grim Reaper robbed her of her husband in the year 1929.

Her loss in mourned by Mrs. Vashti Kellerman of Siquirres, another sister, six children twelve grand children twelve cty F and other relatives, to all of whom the "Atlantic Voice" extends its deepest condolence.

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep. From which none ever make (to weep:

A calm and undisturbed (repose Unbroken by the loss of focs.

THE SUDDEN PASSING OF YOUNG AND ESTEEMED LIFE

What had been characteristic as an afternoon of sport on the playground of this city last Sunday was, in the proverbial twinkling of an eye, changed into one of great grief and sorrow. A cloud of gloom enveloped our community. Almost instantaneously death claimed Jorge Solano Chacon, the well known goalie of one of our football clubs, while he was engaged in the defence of his charge against a rival team. We can regard the tragic event in no other light than as another of those inevitable occurrences which seem to govern human destinies.

The bumping of players into each other is by no means a rarity and that which caused the much lamented death of our very highly and widely esteemed young citizen was no exception.

Jose Solano Chacon was a very daring defender of his post and in a rapid advance after the ball he and his opponent got in contact. With that marked courage he always displayed, he quickly regained his feet but again collapsed. He was rushed off for medical attention, but ere this was obtained life was extinct. Exceedingly mournful was the spectacle from all angles on the afternoon of his burial. In a pouring rain, his comrades in sports, a very large number of representative citizens, his relatives and personal friends accompanied the remains from the family residence to the Cathedral, where the Rev. Fr. John conducted the solemn service, aided by the mournful chanting of the dirges by the choristers.

Great is the sorrow felt for his death, and unbounded is our personal sympathy toward his deeply bereaved parents, sisters, brother and other relatives. May the soul of our departed fellow citizen rest in peace perpetual.

FROM OLD HARBOUR ON THE SICK AGENDA

Our quiet little coast town of Old Harbour was the scene of a very unusual occurrence a few weeks ago which serves, we think, as further evidence of the wonderful workings of nature, even among the lower animals.

This strange happening centered around a cow which gave birth to two calves, eight days apart. The first delivery was effected on June the 21st. and the second on the 29th. idem. The animal is owned by Mrs. Miriam Smith.

We are indebted to our good friend Mr. Z. C. Allwood for this interesting information.

Mr. Fred Raymond of Beverley Farm is, we regret to learn, on the sick list and a patient in the local hospital. The latest report says he is progressing favourably. We hope for his complete recovery in the earliest possible time.

Due to her impaired health and in order to secure close medical attention Mrs. Rebecca Brown-Simpson of Moinis, we learn, staying in this city. She is accompanied by her daughter Miss Hilda. We have the pleasing information that her condition is on the improve. We trust the date is not far distant when full recovery of her good health will be obtained.

The homesters accumulated 103 runs to which the visitors replied with only 42. The following are the individual contributions.

Progressive. — F Davis 24, A Dennis 1, A. Senior 17, B. Davis 1, L. Barsett 29, M. Thompson 2, V. Steart 12, G. Leslie 1, S. Williamson 9, (not out) Byes 7.

AGENT REPORTER

PERSONAL

Major Lynch of the local Salvation Army left this city on Monday's passenger train for San Jose to perfect arrangements for his trip by aerial transportation to Panama on matters of the Army. We wish him a pleasant flight and stay in the neighbouring Republic.

Mr. George Campbell, one of the esteemed agriculturists of the coastal district of Cahuita, is visiting our city. Though said to be much over the allotted three score and ten years, he appears hale and strong and moves with marked agility. IN SCOUTDOM

One of the finest displays of effective cultural training graced the principal streets of our city on the first morning of the present month, when the Boy and Girl Scouts of St. Mark's in magnificent scouting array, marched from the troop's headquarters to the railway station and occupied the two special coaches attached to the regular passenger train for the Capital.

These scouts were specially invited to join their San Jose comrades in effecting that which is reported to have been a glowing tribute to the Hon. Fay Allen Des Portes, the Diplomatic Representative of the United States of America, on the occasion of the commemoration of 168th anniversary of the independence of his nation. By all the accounts which have reached us the demonstration was a matchless affair, and the people of San Jose is said to have been held spellbound by the exceptionally efficient displays of the Scouts, particularly those of this Zone, in drills, signaling and other exercises.

We quote the comment of "Ultima Hora" of Monday the 3rd. instant.

"At the hour of ten, yesterday, was effected the parade of the Boy Scouts in honour of the Ambassador of the United States, Mr. Fay Allen Des Portes. The parade started at the Artillery Plaza and advanced by Central Avenue, where there was congregated an enormous quantity of the public. Taking part were Cadets, Scouts of the distinctive troops organized in the country; and there had arrived from Limon a strong contingent with band and cornet which drew much attention. Mr. Des Portes, the Ambassador, delivered a cordial and gracious message to the Scouts on behalf of the United States. To Mrs. Des Portes was donated a charming bouquet of the most beautiful flowers of the country. Immediately after went the parade and the brilliant demonstration of the Scouts which greatly pleased the Ambassador and his party. We congratulate, highly the directors of the Boy Scouts, as well as all those who so well organized them.

The Rev. W. James Evans, the Commissioner, went to the Capital on the Monday and was met at the railroad station by the troops and given a splendid reception witnessed by hundreds of people. He returned with the troops the following day.

THE PASSING INTO ETERNITY OF OUR MOTHER AND GRANDMOTHER

BY ADELAIDE SIMPSON LINDBERG

With the passing recently into eternity of our dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. Adelaide Granderson de Simpson, Limon, has suffered the loss of another citizen of long and useful standing. She was born at San Juan del Norte in the Republic of Nicaragua and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Lindberg. She arrived in this country in her infancy with her parents, grew to young womanhood and became the wife of Mr. John Granderson who preceded her to the tomb. There were three children of the marriage. She later married Mr. James Simpson and again became a widow, this time with two children. During her earlier life she was an active adherent of the Baptist Denomination and gave great assistance to the local church; however, on accepting the Message of Adventism she was baptized in the year 1902 by Elder Knight. She donated a part of her land for the erection of the Seventh Day Adventist Temple and financially assisted in the construction of the edifice.

She had the distinction of ranking as a pioneer member of the local Denomination.

Her bequest, in cash to this Church was carried out by her grand daughter Miss Adelaide Simpson Lindberg and graciously accepted by Evangelist H. T. Rankin.

The service in connection with the interment of her remains was solemnly performed by the Evangelist, Mr. Robinson, the Secretary of the Inter-American Division, and

Mr. J. E. Rogers, who glowingly tributed the life career of the one so deeply mourned. The beautiful casket in which her remains rested, headed by Elder Rankin, and accompanied by a concourse of mourners and sympathisers, including doña Lia M. de Montero and the students of the Secondary School with which Miss Simpson is associated proceeded to the Camp One Cemetery where it was deposited in her vault. She is mourned by two daughters, three grand daughters and other relatives to all of whom the "Atlantic Voice" tenders its most profound condolence.

War Commentary

To many observers abroad and far away from the smoke of battle, the seesaw fighting on the Normandy Front in northern France must appear as very slow going and in a way disappointing because of the lack of spectacular advances by the Allied forces. We advise them to hold their horses for a little while, since there are very definite strategic reasons for this apparent calm. The fighting is very hard indeed, and there is no doubt that at the present moment both the British and American troops are hampered by the relatively narrow space at their disposal to develop operations, and, secondly, the Germans under Rommel are doing their utmost to prevent the Allies from extending their holdings. The enemy knows as well as we do that if he cannot hold our armies on this narrow front, he will never be able to do it once the United Nations are able to land more troops on the beaches and through the port of Cherbourg, which is now being rehabilitated.

It is a known fact, that the Germans are being gradually forced back, and that Rommel has been obliged to throw into the battle some of his strategic infantry and armour reserves in order to stem the Allied tide. That means in other words, that the German general is actually weakening his available effectives at the beginning of a battle, the final outcome of which is bound to spell his own doom. While the Allied armies are becoming stronger with every day that passes, his own forces are drawing on their reserves now and thus he will not have any left when the "Big Push" begins. We again remind our readers of the tactics employed by General Montgomery at El Alamein, in October and November of 1942, when he forced Rommel to fritter away his best troops, and when the British were really ready to apply their full pressure to the job in hand, the Germans were unable to hold up the advance and much less to stop it. This is exactly what is happening on the Normandy Front, but with the aggravation that the Nazis are now harassed on three different fronts and cannot shift reinforcements from one to the other without weakening them all beyond repair.

There are very definite signs that the powerful Nazi war machine is beginning to crumble under the relentless pressure and rising power of the United Nations. Firstly, it has been noted — on all fronts — that the number of very young soldiers between 16 and 19 years and those of from 40 to 55 is getting more and more numerous. That indicates that the best men — those between 20 and 40 — are ever scarcer and unobtainable. Only in the West, facing the Allied armies in Normandy, there are still to be seen so-called "crack" divisions of Hitler's S. A. and S. S. type, meaning fanatical party members and real Nazis. Secondly, the number of German generals, and not only those of the frontline variety are surrendering, being captured or die with their troops. Close to forty of them have vanished in this way from the German army, and that indicates clearly that they are despairing of the final result of the war, that their regiments are not obeying them any longer — or that they have been ordered to stand up and fight it out to the finish where they are because Germany cannot afford to cede any more ground to the victorious Allies because the battle has ceased to be for the "Fetters of Europe" and rages around strictly German territory now. There are other ominous signs that the Nazi armour is cracking, namely, reports have it that the already dangerously thinned ranks of the German armies of occupation in Norway, Denmark and the Balcanes are being combed for new levies, and that offers are being made to the millions of foreign workers who were forced to go to Germany and work in the war industries to join the army, now that the Anglo-American air offensive has destroyed the majority of the great armament plants and their services are not longer required in their former capacity.

Observers who have had the opportunity to see the German army of 1918 and who are looking at it again in 1944 declare that there is a striking similarity between the rank and file towards the end of the first world war and those who are waging the last ditch fight today. The uninterrupted series of Allied successes and the lack of air protection against the undisputed superiority of the enemy's air squadrons over the "Luftwaffe" is rapidly softening the Germans in the field. On the domestic front it is only the iron sway of the Gestapo and the fear of reprisals which is keeping the civil population from mutinying against the Nazi domination. Last but by no means least, the Fuehrer himself delivered himself of a speech a few days ago which clearly showed that he himself is only continuing the fight because he is well aware that his regimen could not survive defeat. Since we, the Allies, agree with this, the time is not far off when the last Svastika flag will have disappeared from this world and Humanity will

West Indian Contingent

The recent statement by Britain's War Office that a Contingent of fighting troops, made up of men from the West Indian Colonies, would be drafted in the immediate future to active theatres of operations, has been received with enthusiasm. This must not be interpreted as a policy of segregation in the British Army. West Indians are at present serving in various British Regiments and are getting along admirably with their English cousins.

At the beginning of the war, when West Indians were arriving in the United Kingdom in large numbers to join the army a suggestion was made to form a West Indian Regiment. This proposal did not receive encouragement from Colonial Officials, who pointed out that it might easily lead to segregation in the British Army, which was the last thing they wanted to see.

In the early stages of World War I, there was no small regret among West Indians who voluntarily wanted to serve, when their offer to serve abroad was refused on the ground that they could best render aid by helping to defend their own shores. They were not discouraged by this decision, for every ship proceeding to Britain carried West Indian recruits in large numbers to join Kitchener's Army.

Within the course of a year when danger in the West Indies had passed the following announcement appeared in the London Gazette (October 25th 1915): "His Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to approve of the formation of a Corps from Contingents of the inhabitants of the West India Islands to be entitled 'The British West Indies Regiment'." Eleven battalions were raised and served with distinction in Palestine, France and Italy, in addition to the (privately financed) Trinidad Merchants' and Planters' Contingent and the Barbados Citizens' Contingent.

In the present war history is repeating itself. Immediately after the declaration of hostilities the West India Committee received many enquiries from West Indians both in the United Kingdom and in the Colonies as to how they could best be of service. Since then men and women from the Bahamas, Barbados, Bermuda, British Guiana, British Honduras, Jamaica, The Leeward and Windward Islands,

Japan's disastrous Shipping Difficulties

Japan is to-day importing less from her Pacific conquered territories than a year ago. Her shipping situation is now desperate. Although she has access to an abundance of food and raw materials overseas, she cannot transport them to Japan. Great drives have been undertaken by her to carry some traffic by road and rail whereby to release shipping for overseas transport. New roads are being built and existing ones improved. This is a most significant revelation of the acuteness of Japan's shipping problem.

Allied naval and air operations are estimated to have reduced Japanese shipping from 7,500,000 gross tons to about 5,000,000 gross tons. These figures exclude oil tankers; but the shortage of tankers has become so acute that Japan is now converting some of her best freighters into tankers. During the war Japan has built some 1,750,000 tons of wooden vessels of about 250 tons, but these, like the coastal vessels now being transferred, are wholly unsuited for long voyages through seas swept by typhoons and hurricanes.

Captain Hiraide, Japanese naval spokesman, is on record as saying that Japan's pre-war shipping total of 7,500,000 tons is only one-fifth of the merchant fleet required. It is estimated that Japan is having to devote at least 3,500,000 tons of her shipping to the task of supplying and reinforcing her military forces overseas. This leaves her with only 1,500,000 available for exploiting her conquests.

The Japanese press and radio has admitted that goods have been piling up in her newly won empire in the South at the rate of millions of tons annually, and from Trinidad have left their homes to serve in the United Kingdom. Some travelled at their own expense, some under Government schemes, but all with the same motive and the same determination.

Fighting in Burma

An eyewitness account from Burma reads: "I have just returned from the forward areas in Kaladan Valley in Burma, where West Africans have gone into action under amazing and almost incredible difficulties and the report I bring is one of courage, endurance, and continuing success. The West Africans have met and killed their first Japanese. Initial clashes have been highly successful. That is the first and most encouraging point. But that is not the whole story. To make contact with the enemy our troops made one of the most strenuous marches I have ever witnessed. I went with them part of way, returning only to write this despatch at jungle headquarters. The feats of endurance, combined with the newly-acquired skill of these soldiers, will never be fully known. Only the men themselves can tell how they felt as, alone or in small parties, they moved forward mile after mile through dense tropical jungle, taking with them their essential supplies and equipment."

Two trawlers had busy time

This is the record of two trawlers, HMS Inchcolm and HMS Mull: Each convoyed 2,000 ships since war began, of which only one was lost.

If anything since has been done to transport this glut to the starving Japanese war industries it can only have been at the expense of abandoning islands in the central Pacific. It is more likely however, that the accumulation of cargoes and the abandonment of the Central Pacific are both due to the lack of merchant shipping, the lifeblood of any overseas empire. Japan has been maintaining over-ambitious military commitments rather than importing raw materials for her war potential and now it is too late to switch over to a long-term policy.
