Phrase of the moment

Extreism, as a doctrine, leads in most instances to serious crimes. It has been known within recent times to be responsible for the murdering of men and women, the miscarriage of justice and the interference with the common rights of the cittzen. The sad part of it is that in many places the legitimate government seems unable to do that which would eradicate its existence from within its borders.

New Charter Unveiled

The legendary month of August to the Negro people of the British West Indies and incidentally by way of example set, to the Negroes of the world; continues making history to this much example set, to the Negroes of the world; continues making histo y to this much depreciated group in Central America, for on Sunday 2 nd of Angust at 3 p.m. there was gathered to gether a select crowd of the intellectuals of Limon to witness the unveiling of the new Charter No 300 of the Limon Division of this great Negro Organization; instituted by that genius of Negro talent Mr. Marcus Garvey of indomitable will and undaunted courage, for the purpose of inspiring Race Consciusness in the Negro peoples of the world.

At 3 p.m. the officers of the Division marched in, preceded by the guard of honour and took their seats on the Rostrum amid the strains of "Shine on Eternal Light" by the Choir. The Chaplain Mr. L. A. Brown continued the religious ceremony and this done, handed over the function to the President Mr. W. A. Reid who after a few chosen remarks for the occasion, introduced over the function to the President Mr.W. A. Reid who after a few chosen remarks for the occasion, introduced Mr. U. A. Brown of Liverpool as Chairman in the absence of Mr. A. L. Stewart who had been engaged for this purpose, but so soon as Mr. Brown was introduced, he too had to make an introduction of Mr. Stewart who had by this time arrived and carried out the ceremony in fine Style after making an inspiring Oration. The Choir rendered suitable selections, especially was this crowned by the pathetic voice in the Solo of Miss Teresa Moore entitled "Rock of Ages." The Anthem "How Excellent" by the choir also held a last ng impression on the audience.

He then called upon Mr. W. A. Mr. S. C. Nation next spoke and explained the reason for a new charter since the great Convention of 1929 and exhorted the members to greater coucentration for their own interests which was more needed now than ever pointing out that the rebirth of the Division by its new charter, should also mean a burial of all old dissentions and petty disputes among members and rise in a new determination of greater Unity among themselves rather than forming cliques, er Unity among themselves rather than forming cliques, when a miscreant was right-cously punished; he showed out that when a member of any organization acted in rebellion to the Constitution of Such Society he must be punished, but such punish-ment should not be taken by his friends as a means for by his friends as a means for also acting contrary to the best interests of the cause, and hoped that all disharmonious thoughts would now be vanished for ever and all look to Unity of action in the truest sense of the word. Mr. Walker of the Samaritan order spoke in similar strains.

Mr. Lames Isaacs of Bananito Mr. James Isaacs of Bananito also spoke on the subject of cooperation, then a quartette was rendered by Mrs. and Miss Moore, Messrs Johnson and Miller, and the Chairman closed a most pleasant func-tion a 5.50 p.m.

Limon -- a Free Port!

At one of the sessions of Congres last week our representatives, Srs. Chaverri and Gutierrez, submitted the motion, which of the control of t sentatives, Srs. Chaverri and Gutierrez, submitted the motion, «that at the fourth International Commercial Conference to be held in Washington next September Limon be declared a free Port for the Atlantic». After a rather short discussion the motion was duly agreed to; we hasten to tender our congratulations to our worthy representatives for having introduced the matter, which is without doubt of the most vital importance and, if it should eventually be carried into effect, will undoutedly do more towards resusitating the commercial and other interests of our only Atlantic gateway than any other project could. The subject has we are also glad to note been most enthusiastically approved by all sections of the community and it is understood that specific instructions will be given our delegates to the conference as to the matter. There are some who are of the opinion that with Limon a free port, the Govern-ment's financial interests in the Pacific Railway a wharf at Puntarenas will wharf at Puntarenas will be detrimentally affected but we do not think that such would be the case, for as others have already pointed out, there would be no conflict of interests as the operations at this end would be restricted to the commercial movements for the Atlantic. There is also the further question regarding further question regarding the wharves which are at present under the control of the United Fruit Company, but we feel sure that such an apparent obstacle could be overcome without reach difficulty having to much difficulty, having regard to the fact that the change would be also of much benefit to the Company.

May the efforts of those who are moving in this all important matter be crowned with very saccesspento es propiedad

The Standard Fruit Co.

The above named Co. who, as reported in our last issue, took over the Jamaica business of the Atlantic Fruit Co. has we learn secured contracts from the majority of the Contractors of the Atlantic. The price being offered is said to be a flat rate of two shillings and six pence per bunch all the year round and the majority of contracts are it is understood, for a period of 5 years. With the Banana Markets at the very low ebb they now are, the offer is considered a pretty good one by most banana men, particularly as it is pointed out that under such a system the contrac. tor will be able to get paid whatever fruit sells immediately without awaiting sales results as the case it is alleged under the contracts based on market prices such as those of the United Fruit Co. and the Producers Association. It is also the opinion of those who are experienced in the banana business that it is unlikely that there will be much fluctuations in prices in the near tuture but rather that they will keep at around what they are at present, so that with the Standard shipping to Canada and Europe, those who have signed up, feel that there will be more fruit-needed from them, they therefore think the offer reasonable and on the whole a satisfactory one.

The following which forms part of an article appearing in the Gleaner's issue of the 25 th, ult, will we feel sure be read with much interest:

According to mail advices which have been received in Kingston, the Costa Rica Government has expressed tis willingness to contribute half of the pas-sage money that vvill be required to get the unemployed West Indians, principally Jamaicans, out of the country. And it is understood that parties in the Republic who vvere ap-proached by the authorities on the subject, have obtained the names of about tvvo thousand Jamaicans vvho are at present unemployed. It is believed that in a short time definite steps vvill be taken to secure the return of the men to Iamaica,

Some couple of months ago we were somewhat similarly, informed with respect to the efforts which, it was stated by a local press, certain lamaicans were making to obtain the assistance of this Country's government to get them back to their Island home and strange to say, the number, by what seems to us a peculiar co-incidence corresponded with the 2,000 now mentioned. We are thinking, therefore, that the same agenwhich engineered the previous tale is again at work. A Political Meeting

On Monday night the Teatro Moderno, saw a crowd never before vvit nessed to hear the Orations of some of Costa Rica's best sons. Lic. don Manuel Castro Que sada, the candidate for Presidency from the Par-tido Unión Republicano, along with Genl George Volio and other dis tinguished gentlemen were announced to speak in Limon on the Political movement and that was quite sufficient guarantee for an im-mensely crowded house. All Limon, friend and foe of the Castrista party were out to hear the eloquence of these great men. The Ricardistas tried a counter move to deter the populace from attending this meeting but it did not yvork; they engaged the Teatro secure anything or find any now, in the West Indies.

inquietud, de zozobra y de incertidumbre, el pueblo costarricense se pregunta quien será el futuro presi-dente de Costa Rica? Esta pregunta quizá nadie pueda contestar, pues en estos momentos están saliendo a la arena política muchos valores cívicos y políticos de los cuales llegará al solio presidencial, el que prive más en la conciencia de las colectividades. Será Manuel Castro Quesada? Ricardo Jimènez o Carlos María Jiménez? Es imposible adelantar eltriunde estos profesionales políticos, pues en la actua-lidad hay diversidad de ideas por lo cual es difícil predecir quien obtendrá el triunfo deseado.

La opinión nacional está pendiente del curso que vayan tomando los acontecimientos políticos, pues es el deseo unánime llegue a regir los destinos de la Nación, un ciudadano que verdaderamente se preocupe por los sagrados intereses de la República. El bienestar y grandeza de la patria está por encima de todas las cosas y por este motivo tan justísimo es que todo costarricense no debe pensar más, que en conseguir a toda costa renovación de la República, para lo cual no hay màs que saber elegir y escoger con meditada cordura, la persona de más alto relieve social y político para que ésta sea quien dirija con buen acierto los destinos de esta pacífica Costa Rica.

Mediten un poco y llegarán al convencimiento que las ideas empecinadas en seguir a determinado caudillo, nunca se llegará un ideal renovador el caudillaje en muchos países del continente americano, ha sido la causa del desequilibrio social y po lítico es necesario dejar y pensar como hombres libres para llevar a la primera magistratura de la República, a un ciudadano verdaderamente sea prenda de legítima garantía y de esta manera conseguir la redención de la patria costarricense.

La lucha política está iniciada, sólo falta la buena cooperación de los hijos de Costa Rica para escoger y apoyar un ciudadano puramente patriota, que piense ante todo por la felicidad y grandeza de la República, sus caros inte reses demandan la positiva cooperación de los hom bres sanos y libres para conseguir la salvación de este girón de la Amèrica del centro. Está demostrado que el personalismo nunca deja nada y eso precisamente ha sido el móvil, por el cual en algu nos países del istmo ha tenido fatales resultados. Con criterio sano y repose llesado estsoy eguro gará a la conclusión de una verdad real y pura de Aunando todas las fuerzas y buena voluntad que existe en el alma de cada costarricense y puesta al servicio de un candidato honrado y progresista, se conseguirá el triunfo más ruidoso que puede esperarse. Apóyese a un ciu dadano de alto relieve político, de más grandes dadano dotes intelectuales y mo-rales, en fin un elemento verdaderamente representante del sentir general de los pueblos, con todas ejecutorias, se habrà llegado a la meta de los ideales del país para colocar al frente de los destinos de la República, a un hombre que se preocupe por el porvenir de la por el Nación.

Los últimos aconteci mientos políticos que se han venido desarrollando a última hora, dan una idea más clara del asunto, de lo cual se supone que el candidato màs viable para llegar y regir y administrar con buen acierto los bienes del estado es el tribuno, el estadista y hombre público don Ricardo Jiménez.

La inauguración del club Ricardista, la cual se veri-ficò el tres de los corrientes, ha sido una demostración aplastante para los adversarios de la candidatura de don Ricardo, pues la concurrencia de sus coopartidarios fué numerosisima, en la cual había elementos del género fe menino de lo más saliente de nuestra sociedad porteña.

CHECK UP YOUR EFFICIENCY

By ROBT. W. DE LA BASTIDE, Doctor of Chiropractic

There are six different directions in which a man can move as he journeys along through life. He can go north, south, east, or west, and he can go either, up or down. There is no standing still, be cause life itself is expressed in a form of motion, and it is but natural that we drift one way or the other. Which one way or the other. Which way are we going and how far are we on the way, are vital questions on which we should check up ourselves.

Everyman possesses within himself a continent of undiscovered possibilities, a marcovered possibilities, a marvelous power that whispers to him that he is capable of almost infinite development if he will wake up and give himself a chance.

The average man is a failure b. cause he does not know how to think. The Bible says, "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he". This is a great scientific truth. The secret of man's ability to think lies in his ability to analyze, cannot think; and the man who cannot think cannot succeed in any line of ensucceed in any line of en-

If our vision is limited, our aspirations are limited, and therefore our possibilities must be limited. Our vision is limited because we lack a definite aim, a definite ambition, a definite purpose

The greatest cause of inefficiency is a lack of definite purpose. The man who has no definite object in life is going nowhere, he is just drifting; and that is the reason he never arrives. He is sailing toward no port, and if he ever reaches port it will be as a result of pure accident.

he ever reaches port it will be as a result of pure accident.

But the man of definite purpose is the man with a conquering spirit. He flashes out upon the horizon like a fixed star. He sets the pace for other men. He leads the way because he has a vision. way becauce he has a visión He knows which way he is travelling, and he knows just why he is travelling. He can see the end from the beginning, because he has created it in his imagination. Did you ever stop to observe how some men radiate courage, optimism, enthusiasm, ambition and leadership? It is because these men he anchored their lives with definite aim, and an ultimate purpose.

The man with a definite aim a is maximum ma hundred per cent man. aim creates within him life's great positive forces, and it gives him an energetic certi-tude and a fervent trust.

* * * * * *

Such a man takes nothing for granted. He does not guess. He prepares himself in advance to fill the position which he expects ultimately to fill.

Every great achievement of the human race was made possible because it first existed as an ideal, an ulti-mate purpose in the life of some individual.

existed as an ideal, an uniterate purpose in the life of some individual.

To spend one's days in anything short of searching out the forces within himself, and without a daily, active, vigorous, aggressive struggle to accomplish the aim of his life and live up to the best that is in him, is not to live but to exist.

To take things passively as they come and get along with them whatever they are; is not even to exist, but to be tolerated. To say you cannot make a success is to place yourself on par with the people of the middle ages. But to say you can and you will is to place yourself in the lead along with the world has ever known.

The new and inspiring philosophy of a new era is making it plain to the human race, that man is not the slave of his environment and his circumstances; that he can control his environment his circumstances; that he can control his environment and not have his environ-ment control him; that he is master and creator of his master and creator of his own destiny.

It is s id that the philosophy of the average man is the philosophy of failure and that is the reason he is a failure. To make a success his philosophy must be changed; and to accomplish this there must be an educational revolution in his life.

He thinks it isn't necessary for him to cultivate the study babit; he doesn't realize that knowledge is power; he doesn't realize that time is money; and too, he doesn't realize that health is his greatest asset

The instrumen s of the efficient man are his own mind and thoughts and the mind of those with whom he has dealings, and he should acquaint himself with both.

should acquaint himself with both.

We must be accurate in thinking, for if we are careless in thought we must correspondingly be careless in act, because thought and action are as closely connected as cause and effect.

The indifferent man is unconcerned about either the present or future, and he is satisfied just to exist, little imagining that his indif-ference is due largely if not altogether, to his own ig o-

The indifferent man doesn't The indifferent man doesn't know, and what is so much worse, he just doesn't care to know. He permits little mental stimulus to enter his life because his brain is dormant and undeveloped. He has no ideal, no purpose, no ambition—He is too lazy to investigate anything, and so therefore on account of so therefore on account of this sluggish habit he retro-grades in spite of his advan-cing years and the constant worthwhile developments all worthwhile developments all around him. The only hope for such a man is to wake up and feed his impoverished brain Many men do not realize that the head was made to think with and that success depends upon how we use it. Knowledge is the antidote

Knowledge is the antidote for fear, as light is the antidote for darkness. Eliminate for fear, as light is the antidote for carkness. Eliminate ignorance and fear will vanish. We kill the negative by practising the positive. We kill laziness by continually h u s t l i n g. We kill cowardice by doing the thing that needs to be done, regardless of those who may disapprove our action.

Check up and speed up your brain forces then, and you will increase your efficiency. Analize your brain forces and control them, and you will begin to see some of the marvelous things you can do for yourself.

Apply a process of elimination and substitution to every negative and positive quality you possess, and you will notice a marvelous change in your self within very few months for your possibilities are really unlimited.

Costa Rica's bananas

The price of the bananas which are being exported from this country to California is said to have now reached 4 and one half cent, U. S. Australia faces deficit

The Commonwealth of Australia, like other countries the world over, is now experiencing her share of financial depression. She is reported to be faced with the rather large deficit of £ 17.000,000 on her year's Budget, and the Minister of Finance has had to submit various increases of taxation to the Legislature in an effort to get even with the situa-

It is therefore pleasing to note that with, we believe, a most generous desire to personally do his "bit" to help the taxpayers, the Governor General, the noted Sir Isaac Isaacs-has voluntarily reduced his salary by the sum of £ 1,000. He had previously, we are informed, relinguished his judicial pension of £1,500 as well as the personal allowance of £2,000 paid to his predecessor in office.

It would be well, if the laudable example of the Governor General would be followed by other high Colonial Officials, a large number of whom, we are certain, could very easily afford to surrender a reasonable part of their sal-aries and personal allow-ances which were regulated on most generous bases during more prosperous times.

Siguirres, The music-loving mem bers of this community were given a fine treat on Sunday afternoon last by the pupils of the St. Joseph's Catholic school.

address delivered by Mr. Charles Hayling at the recent Inauguration Banquet of the University Club and deals with «Progress».

Mr. Guest of Honour. Lady and Gentlemen: I am glad of the privilege of being with you this evening and of the honor of being allowed to add quota to such a delightful programme.

If I may be permitted to define the term "Progress" as I understand it, I would say that would say that it is the rise of mind over matter, of will over fate. It implies the strengthening of the human mind, its increasing unmind, its increasing un-derstanding of the laws of nature, its increasing power over the forces of nature and over the forces contrary to human happiness and welfare.

The nations of the earth have reached a degree of common intwhich requires erests imperatively common institutions for the solution of the social problems, common to all. Progress is the cardinal principle of the universe, and in order to effect it with any degree of success there must be organization. There must appropriate tutions for doing justice to opportunistic needs Institutions such as the University Club mark a step in the desirability of progress.

Biology teaches us that it is the main destiny of all creatures to pave the wayfor creatures less civilized man and woman unlike those creatures of the lower stages, unlike also primitive man, should grasp this duty of progress and hold it as an ideal.

Racial progress should be regarded a source of joy, - with exchanges of opinions and experiences among the local clubs, then with clubs and institutions abroad will, I feel help to a great extent. Modern economic, soc al and cultural development has led to many problems. The solutions found for these problems have not been the same every-where. The problems which confront the Race today cannot be met with the solutions of yesterday.

Before taking my seat I wish to publicly congratulate the officers and members for having got together such a representative body of young men, and I wish the University Club abundant success along the lines of progress.

referred to the effort which was being made by the Socialist party and the Trades Union to give the government con-trol of all the Insurance business now obtaining in England, with a view of preventing a certain group from ultimately securing a private mo-nopoly of that business, as well as to provide, incidentally, the Exhecquer with another source of revenue.

We now have it that the Government, with a desire to relieve the cities of much of their idling population and encourage them to return to agricultural pursuits, has submitted a Bill to Parliament secking the necessary permission to expend the appreciable sum of £ 2,000,000 in the building of 40.000 houses during the ensuing 12 months. The amount would be advanced to the municipal authorities in the various rural districts, who would erect

In our previous issue the buildings and rent them to the workers at an average weekly rent of from 31 to 4/6d. in cluding local taxes.

It is further anticipa-ted that the work of constructing the buildings, will provide work for 100,000 men not now employed; thus according to the supporters of the Bill, the scheme will not only help the press-ing need for rural housing but enable the State to save in dole benefits about £5.000.000 or more than twice the amount involved.

In supporting the Bill Miss Lloyd George des cribed the scheme as the first real attempt to meet the housing need of the agricultural worker.

According to official eports to the end of June, the number of un-employed in England totalled 2.664,889 which was an increase of 774.314 on the total a year ago.

The Great Contest

The Elocution Contest advertised for by the Ladies Standard Club, came off on the evening of Tuesday 4th inst. at the great Hall of the Limon Burial Scheme Association and was a collossal success, especially from the intellectual stand point.

The building was erowded to its utmost with a select gathering of the Elite of the coloured people of the town and never before have witnessed such comradeship, such good cheer, such an expression of goodwill among our people, as evidenced on this night. The audience entertained with Songs, Recitations and musical renditions of grand selections, and when the Contest was announced all were in delightful expectancy. The chair lady Mrs. O. C. Keith Harriott did her part to perfection and soon introduced the first contestant, Miss Marie Kenton of the Garvey's Literary Club, who acquitted herself well in "The Curfew", but was a bit lacking in punctuation and enunciation. Had she proper training, she would certainly have been well in the running for the trophy. Miss Kenton for her age and inexperience in such Contests must be com-mended, she will be a gem with proper training, Mr. Michael Newton of the Motive Power next appeared with his theme «The Raven» by Poe, but his memory was sadly at fault, thus causing, a lamentable failure, it fair to say however, that Mr. Newton only came in as a substitute at the last moment, due to the unavoidable absence of the chosen representative of the Motive Power: Mr. S. Britton of the University Club then came forward with his «Soldier's Boy» and was much applauded, gaining second place; then came before the audience the heroine of the Contest, Miss Vera Gillings with her theme «The Indian Soldier» when by her beautiful Articulation, intonation and pathetic modulation of her voice coupled with the clear rhythmic tremor of her tone she easily captivated, Isle of Springs.

not only the audience but by the smiles of appreciation and the Jocular expressions in the eyes of the Judges, it could be seen that they also had fallen bewitched by her eloquence, tact and charming mannerism,

Lastly came Mr. Fraser of the Alpha Club with his «Charge of the light Brigade» was well rendered, but the grace of his predecessor had not yet left the memory of the Judges, hence the Trophy, a beautifully set Silver Cup, handsomely engraved with the words: «From The Searchlight», 4th. Au-gust 1931. was awarded her. Mr. Britton of the University Club was the winner of the second prize, a fine volume of Prize Stories by O. Henry. After congratulations to the winners by the Chairlady and a few exchanges of compliments, the Revd. Mr. William Forde, Pastor of the Baptist Church to whose kindness is due the possibility of the housing of the «Ladies Standard Club» in his Vestry, pronounced the benediction thus bringing to a close a nost pleasant evening spent through the hospitality of the youngladies of The Standard Club» and its patrons, an even ing that will go down into history, as being the first of its kind held in Limón, thus opening the gates to Literary attainments among the youths of the Province.

Up Hill

All roads worth taking lead up hill, By rough—hewn rock for weary feet, Through fog and mist, where sudden spill May leave the journey incomplete; No flovvered path leads to the height, Bereft of heartache and of fears, Where haunting ghosts by day and night Lurk in the shadows of the years.

Upon the crest against the sku The eagle looks into the sun. But human wings that upward fly Are built of courage, finely spun—
Courage to grope across defeat
And find the light beyond the gate;
Courage to rise at last and meet The blasting bitterness of fate.

Gaunt hands reach out to bar the vvay Where envy, greed and hate stand by, The golden dreams turn sodden gray Where only shadovvs meet the eye. By starless fields of scourge and blight The seeker sometimes finds the thrill Who knows in groping for the light, All roads worth taking lead up hill.

The Cuban Revolution

By the items of news coming to us these last few days, it would seem as if the revolution which has been threatening the Machado regime for some time has at last actually broken out, as we are in formed that in consequence of the aggressive activities of the revolutionary in various parts of Republic, particularly in the provinces of Pinar del Río and Santa Clara and the district of Lugano, martial law has had to be enforced and the strictest censure placed on all telegraphs, telephones and radios throghout the Island. The Constitutional guarantees have also been suspended. Large bodies troops have been rushed to the principal cen-tres of the disturbance and Havana and other coastal cities are being protected by warships and aeroplanes. Numerous clashes with the troops and police have already occurred resulting so far in the rebels losing 30 Killed, 50 injured and 150 taken prisoners The Govt's losses have not been given out. The mountainous regions of Toro are being bombarded by aeroplanes as it is supposed the main body of the rebels is concentrated there. Three warships have also, it is stated, joined the reforces. bel

A STRANGE OCCURRENCE

Some few days ago a Mrs. Lawson was admitted into the Hospital in a peculiar condition; she was eaten all over by maggots, she died the following day. It appears she was of unsound mind and had taken ill and locked herself up in her room. Her appearance aroused the curiosity of neighbours and on their entering the room the sight was hideous, there was hardly a square inch of her body that was not eaten with worms her toes and other parts were entirely eaten; when taken off her bedding the vermin which had dropped off on the floor, had to be swept out by the hundreds. The strangeness is that her son, a tailor by trade, as well as her husband lived in an adjoining room, and yet were not sympathetically aroused by her groans. The public is shocked at such startling inhumanity.

Philomela's friendly talk with girls

PART IV

Ah young women! Let us try to exert our talents and distinguish ourselves honorably. In whatever we do, let reason be always our guide, apprehensive of any harmful critisism which may be thrown at us. Remember, our greatest glory consists, not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall. Girls! let us endeavour not to be easily led into anything that spells our ruin. At times, it is only with the strongest determination that the glaring temptations can be outwitted.

However difficult the road to progress may seem, let us not think for one moment of condescension, but firmly aspire to gain the top of the ladder. Remember not thyselt in thy flight, for egoism makes detestible to herself and her neighbors. Be just to thyself, for you can not fool thyself. Forget not that to every beginning, there is an end; no matter what that end may be.

Minds that have nothing to confer, find very little to perceive. Let us picture, a future, not too far off, when our present day gen-eration fully developed, socially, intellectually and morally. When there will really be a social inter-course, free from that coarseness, which we find everywhere today; When our youths will consider marriage the only salvation and road to happiness. When our young people could build a generation
